Round World Fliers Leave Moscow For Siberian Wilds

BEHIND POST GATTY MARK BY 11 HOURS

American Birdmen Escorted Out of Russia Today By Three Army Planes

STILL AFTER RECORD

Intrepid Airmen Expect to Gain on Old Mark with Short Cut Over Siberia

MOSCOW, July 31.—(UP)—Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon Jr., hurrying on their record breaking attempt around the world, left at 4:20 p.m. today for Siberia.

The fliers made only a brief halt here, making up some of the time they were behind Post and Gatty, and planned a long jump into Siberia to make up further time.

Herndon and Pangborn stayed in Moscow only five and a half hours, whereas Post and Gatty remained 11½ hours. When Herndon and Pangborn departed today, they were 11 hours and 40 minutes behind the Post-Gatty record.

The fliers were escorted out of Moscow by three army planes. Excellent weather lay ahead across the Ural mountains into Siberia, and the fliers hoped to reach Irkutsk, approximately 2700 miles away, in one flight.

They arrived at 11:52 a.m. (3:52 a.m. E.S.T.) from Berlin. Reckoning from the time Post and Gatty left Moscow, Pangborn and Herndon were seven hours behind with a correspondingly difficult task if they are to establish a new time record.

The landing here was smooth. Both fliers were cheerful and anxious to refuel and depart again as soon as possible. They reported they had fought head winds all the way from Berlin.

Despite the fact prospects did not seem bright for beating the Post-Gatty time, they insisted they were determined to beat the recent record. By extending the length of their stages they hoped to raise their average speed.

Andrew Rosinoff greeted Pangborn and Herndon on behalf of Osoaviakhim, the Soviet society for aviation and chemical defense, and escorted them to the Grand hotel.

LAVINE APPEAL TO HIGH COURT LOST

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—(UP)—The state supreme court today denied the appeal of Morris Lavine, former newspaper reporter, and Miss Leontine Johnson, both of whom were convicted and sentenced to jail for extortion of $75,000 from Charles H. Crawford, Abe Morris, J. M. Friedlander and Kent Parrot, leading political and financial figures of Los Angeles as an attorney of the Julian Petroleum company.

Lavine was sentenced in Los Angeles July 11, 1930, to confinement in the Los Angeles county jail for one year and ordered to pay a fine of $5,000. Miss Johnson, former confidential secretary to S. C. Lewis of the Julian Petroleum corporation, was sentenced to nine months in the county jail.

JULY WHEAT IN CHICAGO HITS ALL TIME LOW

Plunges to 48 Cents Bushel on Board of Trade as Corn Advances

CHICAGO, July 31.—(UP)—July wheat plunged to an all time low price of 48c a bushel today on the Chicago board of trade.

The drop carried the July delivery before the low record set earlier in the day when September wheat declined to 50 cents a bushel.

Last minute liquidation was responsible for the decline, which at the close found July three cents off and other months 1-2 to 5-8 cents down.

Corn closed irregular with July 4 3-8 cents higher and other months 1-2 to 1-4 cents lower.

Strength in July corn was attributed in part to the holdings accumulated by Thomas M. Howell, the Iowa planter. He was estimated to have realized a paper profit of $1,000,000 when he settled with short interests yesterday.

The oats market was 1-4 cent higher to 1-4 cent lower.

ZEPPELIN FINISHES JOURNEY TO NORTH

FREIDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, July 31.—(UP)—The Graf Zeppelin returned to its home base here today after a remarkable flight over Arctic wastes near the North Pole.

The dirigible was sighted over the airport at dawn, its familiar long, slender hull sliding rapidly through the gray skies toward its graceful landing. It came down at 4:52 a.m. without incident.

The entire flight over areas which in only very recent years man required months to traverse, was regarded as remarkable because of its uneventfulness. The Graf Zeppelin—veteran of a world cruise and numerous trans-Atlantic flights—spent away one day last week for the last, swiftly overtaking the Soviet icebreaker Malgyn, near Franz Josef Land, moved on into the Arctic, then came back.

POLICE SPURRED IN HUNT FOR BANDITS

NEW YORK, July 31.—(UP)—Gunmen who mowed down five children playing in Harlem streets Tuesday night while trying to put Anthony (Big Ted) Buzzone "on the spot" were hunted today by police spurred by $25,000 in rewards and with orders to "shoot to kill."

The orders came last night from Police Commissioner Edward P. Mulrooney and Mayor James J. Walker as they spoke before the Patrolmen's Benevolent association, which had just voted to contribute $10,000 to the reward fund.

The New York World-Telegram previously had offered $5,000 and the New York American made a $10,000 offer.

CLAIM 13 FOREST FIRES INCENDIARY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—(UP)—Thirteen of the score or more forest fires which created a serious hazard in northern California this week were laid to incendiaries today by state foresters.

Rangers reported that eight of the incendiary fires were in the Backwash district, around Feather river canyon, and the other five in the La Porte district. All were reported under control.

Airplane surveys showed 35,000 acres of federal and state brush and timber lands were blackened by fires in Lassen national forest which was brought under control yesterday by a force of 170 men.

"What-A-Man's Stock On Decline Today

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—(UP)—The matrimonial market on Guy Edward (What-a-man) Hudson stock has closed today $425 off.

Mrs. Margaret Newton-Hudson, who is suing Guy Edward for divorce and alimony, came down to $575 from her original $1000 demand in a second conference of attorneys before the principals, but threatening still no bids, according to reports.

Mrs. Hudson, it was revealed, first asked $1000 from either Hudson or his erstwhile spouse, Mrs. Minnie "Ma" Kennedy to bring about a dismissal of her divorce and alimony action.

"I'm not buying husbands," Mrs. Kennedy remarked at the close of the first conference.

But at the second conference, Mrs. Hudson cut her "asked" to $575 with still no bids.

GIRNAU GIVEN SENTENCE OF EIGHT YEARS

Los Angeles Newspaperman Also Must Pay Fine of Thousand Dollars

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—(UP)—Frederick H. Girnaui, publisher of a tabloid weekly newspaper, today was sentenced to serve eight years in McNeil island federal prison and pay a fine of $1000 for sending obscene matter through the mails.

Girnaui's publication, the Coast Reporter, ran a series of articles a few months ago which purported to describe the "secret love of Clara Bow" film star.

Girnaui was sentenced to three years on the first count, on which he was convicted. A sentence of five years was imposed on the second count with the last three years and 10 months suspended for the duration of five years. This placed his actual prison sentence at four years and two months. The $1000 fine was additional.

United States District Judge Harry H. Holzer, who sentenced Girnaui, delivered a long dissertation in which he bitterly criticized the publisher.

"I have more respect for the highwayman than for one who assassinates the name or character of another," the judge said at one point during his remarks from the bench.

Norman Samay, attorney for Girnaui, filed notice of appeal as soon as sentence had been pronounced. Judge Holzer set bail at $10,000 pending appeal.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER RUNNING UPSTREAM

RED WING, Minn., July 31.—(UP)—Veteran boatmen today claimed the Mississippi river was flowing backward for the first time in history.

They explained that the river was so low that water coming down one half of the divided channel near here encountered a sandbar and actually flowed back some distance in the other half. Islands were appearing in all parts of the river.

PRINCE OF WALES RECOVERING TODAY

LONDON, July 31.—(UP)—The Prince of Wales was recovering today from minor bruises and a severe shaking up suffered when his motor car collided with another while going at high speed yesterday.

LINDBERGH TO SPEND DAY IN CANADIAN CITY

Famous Flier Confers with Persons Familiar with Rugged Country

OTTAWA, Ont., July 31.—(UP)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, facing the wild, treacherous country between Hudson bay and Alaska, on their 7000 mile air vacation trip to the Orient, remained here today to confer with fliers familiar with the country's rugged characteristics.

"We will not leave today," the flier said. He indicated he might make some announcement later today as to when the trip will be resumed.

The famous couple arrived here at 4:33 p.m. E.S.T., yesterday after covering the 530 miles from North Haven, Me., the summer estate of Senator Dwight W. Morrow, in three hours and 23 minutes. The trim seaplane came down to a graceful landing on the choppy waters of the Ottawa river after dipping down in salute to the party of Canadian officials on hand to greet them.

Lindbergh and his wife were flushed and smiling. An official launch, containing Colonel Hanford MacNider, the American minister, Mrs. MacNider, and Canadian officials, put out toward the spot where the monoplane was riding, but held back while Lindbergh packed away some portable gear, instruments and supplies.

Mrs. Lindbergh, wearing a white flying cap and blue shirtwaist, clambered into a small launch and waited for her husband to finish. Then they joined the official party. Mrs. Lindbergh choosing a seat in the rear of the launch and conversed eagerly with Mrs. MacNider.

LLOYD GEORGE HAS COMFORTABLE NIGHT

LONDON, July 31.—(UP)—David Lloyd George, liberal party leader, was improved today, the attending physicians announced.

An official bulletin said: "Mr. Lloyd George passed a fair night and continues to make progress."

The 64 year old war time premier underwent an operation Wednesday for a kidney ailment.

Lloyd George may have a second and more important operation involving removal of the prostate gland, it was rumored.

The initial operation, it was said, was merely the preliminary effort to clear up his malady, originally thought confined to a kidney complaint.

ELLSWORTH VINES BEATS DOEG AGAIN

SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 31.—(UP)—After losing the first two sets, Ellsworth Vines, 19-year-old Pasadena, Calif., sensation, came back brilliantly to defeat John Hope Doeg, National champion, 10-12, 6-3, 6-3, 8-6, 6-1 in the final round of the 44th annual Seabright tennis tournament today.

Hankow City Is Entirely Under Water

Martial Law Prevails in Effort to Forestall Possible Looting

HANKOW, China, July 31.—(UP)—Raging waters from the rising Yangtze river today spread death and incredible property damage throughout most of the rich farming regions of central China.

The death toll from the most serious flood in the recent history of the Yangtze valley increased hourly. It mounted into the thousands. Scores of bodies were whirled off in the mad torrent, and unrecovered. An accurate check of the dead was impossible.

At least 5000 persons were drowned at Wuchang, reports said. Other communities up and down the broad Yangtze reported appalling death tolls. Panic spread through the cities.

The river continued to rise. Hankow was entirely under water, which was several feet deep along the river front.

Martial law prevailed. Soldiers got about as best they could and sought to prevent looting.

The entire Wuhan area—which includes the thriving industrial and trading centers of Wuchang, Hankow and Hanyang—is inundated. The river had swollen until the district looked like an inland sea.

'DIME SLAYER' IS HANGED AT QUENTIN

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, July 31.—(UP)—Benjamin F. Brown, 27-year-old Los Angeles former coast guardman, who committed murder for a handful of dimes, paid with his life today on the gallows of San Quentin.

The trap was sprung at 10:03½ and 14 minutes later Brown was pronounced dead.

Brown confessed to shooting Mrs. Merle Ellis, 29-year-old Los Angeles divorcee, the morning of last November 3. He said he was to be paid $2000 by Emory Ellis, the girl's husband, but received only $220, mostly in dimes.

Ellis is serving a life sentence in San Quentin for his asserted part in the murder.

Today's execution was the fifth in state prisons within the last three weeks.

GATTY, POST NOT TO TAKE ANOTHER TRIP

NEWARK, N. J., July 31.—(UP)—Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, who left today to continue their tour of the country, denied they would make another flight around the world if Hugh Herndon, Jr., and Clyde Pangborn break their record.

When informed of a statement attributed to E. C. Hall, backer of their flight, that they would make another world flight, Gatty said, "No, we won't do that—this year, anyway."

FOUR DIE WHEN DESERT STAGE BREAKS DOWN

Three Survivors Taken to Nearest Town Crazed By Extreme Heat

SONOITA, Son., Mex., July 31.—(UP)—While four bodies, including those of a 16-year-old mother and her baby, lay buried in the desert sands 200 miles west of here, three survivors, half crazed by five days of wandering across burning sands, told today how they faced in real life the same tragic situation which Thomas A. Edison once imagined.

A desert-faring stage left Nogales, (UP) July 20, bound for Mexico with five passengers, the owner and his son. Of these seven people, three, Vincent Gutierrez, the stage owner; his son, Vincent, Jr., 15, and Juan Ojeda, husband of the girl-mother who died in the desert with her baby, returned to civilization.

The others, Mrs. Rufina M. Ojeda and her seven weeks' old daughter, Consuela; Jesus and Ramon Orantes, were buried in shallow graves side by side where they fell dead, victims of heat and starvation.

Vincent Gutierrez, son of the stage owner, the first to rally from the half-crazed state in which they were found, told the story which was so strikingly a real life answer to Edison's famous question as to what members of a similar, but imaginary, group, should do.

"We traveled slow until passing over the first of the Planchas de Plata mountains and reaching the mesas that slope toward the Gulf of Lower California," young Gutierrez said.

"Then after reaching Sonoita we stuck deep sand and the stage just crawled along. The road was deep ruts in the sand stretching across the desert."

"It was sometime last Tuesday the stage broke down. I don't remember whether it was morning or afternoon. We were far out in the desert. We had but little water and were without food."

"I thought we could fix the stage but I finally decided it was hopeless after working for hours under the hot sun. It must have been 130 degrees of temperature."

"Back a little ways there was a crossing road. It was only a trail. We decided to leave the car and go there so that we could get help if anyone should come along."

"We walked for three days and it seemed like the air was burning our skin. The sand was so hot we would lift our feet to cool them off by holding them in the air. Already we were tired of living."

ARMY BLANKETS FOR NEEDY AVAILABLE

WASHINGTON, July 31.—(UP)—The war department will have large supplies of blankets and coats available next winter to meet any needs arising out of the unemployment situation, it was learned today.

Rolling army kitchen equipment also may be supplied to a limited extent where necessary.

A check by the war department officials disclosed there are available for such 1,600,000 army blankets and 200,000 coats. These are stored chiefly in corps area depots in various parts of the country. They will be drawn upon where localities find real need for such equipment. They will be loaned however, only under careful control and through application by local officials or charitable agencies.

LEGION OFFERS TO AID IN GANG DRIVE

NEW YORK, July 31.—(UP)—The American Legion is ready and willing to place 30,000 veterans in the streets of New York to aid authorities in a "ruthless war" on gangsters.

An offer to help police in their drive to round up the killers, who callously turned guns into a crowd of Harlem children while trying to "get" an enemy, has been made to the authorities by State Commander Edward J. Neary of the Legion.

His offer coincided with definite orders to the police to use weapons against known criminals and, in the words of Police Commissioner Edward P. Mulrooney, "don't be the last to draw."

WILL ROGERS says:

BEVERLY HILLS, July 31. [To the Editor of The Register:] I been getting some papers sent to me from up in the northwest and I am telling you from the pictures these grasshoppers have laid that country lower than the farm board; they just swarm onto a place like farmers at a free barbecue and leave about as little. There is one thing to be said for the grasshopper. He has generally operated in Republican territory. Kansas has been ruined by 'em as often as by their politicians, so that's why the Democrats have never paid the bugs much attention, in fact kinder urged 'em on, but they never even prayed for anything like this to happen.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PRISON BOARD SETS SENTENCE FOR W. W. ROSS

Former Santa Ana Dealer in Trucks Given Term of Seven Years

WILLIAM W. ROSS, former dealer in trucks here, whose swindling of the Federal Finance company more than a year ago caused one of the biggest sensations this county has ever known, will have to serve seven years in San Quentin prison for his crime.

This information was received today from the state prison board of directors, which has just determined the term for Ross.

Ross was arrested in Montreal, Canada and was returned to Santa Ana late in May of 1930, after District Attorney Z. B. West and Sheriff Sam Jennings brought him back. He entered the court, charged with grand theft, and pleaded guilty to the charge, being sentenced almost immediately. It was never learned just how much money Ross did steal from the Federal Finance company, and numerous rumors that Ross would tell the entire story sooner or later were never carried out. Ross was received at San Quentin on May 19, 1930.

The prison board also set the terms for other Orange county prisoners sent to San Quentin, Ralph T. Phelps, received at the prison on April 23, 1930, on a grand theft charge, must serve seven years and W. O. Stanley, grand theft, four years. P. T. Metcalf and John Serna, both received on the same date and both charged with grand theft drew four year sentences.

NEW ASSAY OFFICE IN N. Y. IS STARTED

NEW YORK, July 31.—(UP)—A total of about $500,000,000 has been allocated to specific government building projects from the $700,000,000 appropriated for this purpose by the last congress. Acting Secretary of Treasury Ogden L. Mills said today in a speech at cornerstone exercises of the new United States assay office.

"Projects representing an aggregate expenditure of $225,000,000 have either been completed, are under contract, or have reached the point of detailed specifications," he said. "Projects calling for an additional $190,000,000 approximately, are in the drawing stage, of which 78 are being handled by private architects."

SEVENTY-FIVE ARE POISONED AT PICNIC

READING, Pa., July 31.—(UP)—Victims of ptomaine poisoning who were among 12,000 persons attending a picnic at Carsonia park, have shown rapid improvement, physicians said today. At least 75 persons who were the most seriously affected and taken to the Reading hospital probably will recover, physicians said. No additional victims were reported during the day.

JUDGE SETS SEPT. 8 AS TRIAL DATE

Motion to Change Plea in Liquor Charges Will Be Ruled on Same Date

ORDERS JURY PROBE

Defendant Not in Court But Is Represented By Attorneys This Morning

CHICAGO, July 31.—(UP)—Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson today permitted attorneys for "Scarface" Al Capone to withdraw the gang leader's plea of guilty in the income tax case, but reserved decision on the prohibition conspiracy plea until September 8.

Judge Wilkerson upset pre-arranged plans to rule on the case this afternoon by calling Capone, his attorneys, members of the federal grand jury and government prosecutors into court this morning.

Trial on the income tax case was set for September 8.

Capone was not in court, although ordered in by the judge. U. S. marshals were unable to find him on such short notice. His attorneys, however, were on hand.

The liquor conspiracy case, charging 5000 violations, was ordered resubmitted to the federal grand jury for return of indictments providing a higher penalty than that provided on a conspiracy charge.

Judge Wilkerson said he could not believe that the conspiracy case was brought "without probable cause."

His statement follows:

Plea Is Granted

"In the income tax cases, the motion to withdraw the plea of guilty is granted. As the cases are to be tried, the interests of justice require that there be no further comment on the proposed recommendations or the arrangement that was attempted for it. The case is set for trial September 8."

"As to the conspiracy case, the ruling (on the motion to withdraw guilty pleas) is reserved and the motion taken under advisement for disposition September 8."

MAN WHO WOULDN'T BE KILLED IS DEAD

SAN DIEGO, July 31.—(UP)—For several years Lieutenant T. G. Fisher has been daring death to touch him on the shoulder. Today his body was at the bottom of the Pacific ocean somewhere off the Coronado islands, carried down by the weight of his airplane which lost its wings in midair while engaged in tactical exercises.

Lieutenant Fisher had gained a nickname for himself through his many narrow escapes. His fellow naval fliers called him "The man who wouldn't be killed."

Sheer nerve had carried him through a charmed life, but yesterday, while bombarding the radio-controlled destroyer Stoddard with machine gun fire, his ship was seen to falter as it swooped in a power dive on the vessel's deck and before he could "ball out" he had been carried to a watery grave.

GREAT BRITAIN TO REDUCE EXPENSES

LONDON, July 31.—(UP)—Drastic reductions in government expenditures are recommended in a gloomy report to be issued by the parliamentary committee on government economies today.

The reductions are essential, the report will point out, if England is to be saved from bankruptcy. A budget deficit of nearly two-thirds that reported in the United States—will be forecast, the United Press learned.

The report paints a gloomy picture of the nation's financial situation, interesting particularly in view of the reporter negotiations between the Bank of England and the Bank of France for extension of a $100,000,000 credit to the British bank.

Reductions in social services particularly will be recommended.

POLICE ARREST BATHERS MINUS TOPS TO SUITS

Going in bathing at Newport half naked may be a good way to absorb the rays of the sun, but it shouldn't be attempted at Newport Beach, where police officers grow on the practice.

In fact, they disapprove of the practice so much that 21 men were arrested yesterday for bathing without being properly dressed and all were fined in police court. All wore trunks, but had discarded "uppers," police reported.

"We want to break up this practice of persons running about the beach with no uppers for bathing suits and the best way to do it is to arrest offenders," declared Chief of Police R. R. Houghton today.

Each of the defendants was fined $10 and $5 of the fine was suspended.

Those arrested and fined were: John Bailey, 18, Costa Mesa; Fred Doyle, 15, Orange; James Saunders, 15, Orange; Hugh Brewley, 18, Brea; Ralph Comstock, 15, of Anaheim; Bill Douglas, 13, Santa Ana; Sam Marsden, 23, San Bernardino; R. J. Bennett, Jr., 27, of Pasadena; J. B. Hamilton, 24, of Berkeley; George Sell, 22, of Berkeley; Charles Des Noyer, 21, Los Angeles; Arthur Groos, 20, Anaheim; James Mastro, 17, Los Angeles; Howard Cooper, 17, Los Angeles; Fred Bainbrook, 26, of Santa Monica; John P. Jamison, 15, Santa Monica; James A. Kidd, 16, Costa Mesa; Wallace Dunne, 16, Pasadena, and Douglas McMahon, 19, Pasadena. Ray Michelski, 17, Los Angeles; James Doyle, 18, Los Angeles.

Complaints against the 21 men and boys were filed charging violation of section No. 311 of the penal code, which prohibits persons from exposing parts of their bodies in such a manner that other persons might be offended.

Insurance Group Elects Officers

At a recent meeting of the Santa Ana Insurance association with membership of fire and automobile insurance agents, Mac O. Robbins was elected president, succeeding Rufus G. Cartwright. Other officers elected were Lydia Fisher, vice-president and W. B. Martin, secretary-treasurer.

MORE AUTOMOBILE FATALITIES IN JUNE

SACRAMENTO, July 31.—(UP)—Motor vehicle deaths continue to increase and represent one of the most serious problems confronting the state, according to Victor Killick, statistician for the state division of motor vehicles.

A total of 244 persons were killed in motor vehicle accidents last month, the second highest number of deaths on record in the state. As compared to the 188 fatalities in June, 1930, they represent an increase of 34 per cent.

Highway accidents accounted for 1516 deaths for the first six months of the year, an increase of 14 per cent over the same period of 1930, Killick stated.

sea tumultuously running a swift tide.

Hankow and its sister cities are 600 miles inland from the Pacific coast. The three cities form the "Chicago of China." Most of the commerce of the great farming hinterland passes through these cities, wealthy in prosperous times. Their combined population is around 1,500,000.

The swift stream swept through broken dykes in torrents. It was feared the few remaining dykes would break at any time, further imperiling the lives of the people.

Sailors from foreign gunboats in the river at Hankow landed to give the Chinese authorities assistance.

Buildings in the Japanese concession, at the lower end of the bend in Hankow were in danger of collapse, undermined by the torrent. Incessant rainfall in the upper Yangtze valley for the past fortnight was one reason for the flood. There was no indication when the river would subside.

The foreign concession areas in Hankow were flooded, and American property, including the United States consulate-general, was endangered.

SERVICES FOR PIONEER HELD NEXT MONDAY

Mrs. Margaret Angeline Paine Ames, 55, passed away today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Pankey, at 815 North Broadway street after an extended illness.

Mrs. Ames crossed the plains in a covered wagon at the close of the Civil war and passed through many trying and dangerous experiences before settling down in San Bernardino, where she later married Ansel M. Ames.

Besides Mrs. Pankey, she is survived by three other daughters, Mrs. F. C. Pope, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Olive Thurston, of Winter Garden, Cal.; and Mrs. E. B. Van Fleet, of Cucamonga, and 20 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the J. B. Draper Funeral home in Ontario at 1 p. m., Monday, after which interment will be made in the Redlands cemetery.

ing and walking and terribly thirsty, but we must go on.

"Then the little baby died. Senora Ojeda would not let us bury it. She carried it to her breast and tried to keep walking and would not let anyone touch it. At last she gave up and fell at the side of the road. She did not drop her baby and I think she is not dead. But she would not move and we could not bury her because of a dizziness that made us stare.

"The Orantes brothers, Jesus and Ramon, died the next day. They just sat down beside the road and fell over on their faces. We cannot bury them two. My father and I and Jesus Ojeda, we walked on, then pretty soon we don't remember anything. I don't know what happened to them. I thought we had died, too."

"The defendants are charged in this indictment with conspiracy to violate a certain statute. Following a rule inclusive of this kind of case, certain overt acts were charged, among them conspiracy to violate the prohibition law in the manufacture of intoxicating liquor.

"I charge you to look into this and see whether or not there were subsequent offenses."

Judge Wilkerson then left the bench and the courtroom drama was over. The principals departed quickly, none willing to offer any word of comment.

Agreement Made By Justice Dept.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—(UP)—The justice department approved an agreement by federal prosecutors with Al Capone whereby leniency was to be recommended for the Chicago gangster in exchange for a plea of guilty, it was learned today.

The leniency recommended was to have been made by the prosecutor in Chicago.

The arrangement was such as has been entered into in numerous similar cases. There was no indication that the agreement specified any definite sentence for Capone on charges of evasion of the income tax law and conspiracy to violate the prohibition law.

Junior high boys' singles—Oliver Pickens, Edison, first; Albert Saldana, Fremont, third; Louis Castaneda, Delhi; Merle Mitchell, McKinley and John Johnston, Wilson, were other entries.

Elementary boys' doubles—Daniel Flores and John Gilchi, Delhi, first; Ralph Barnes and Ross Barnes, Roosevelt, second; Milford Dahl and David Webb, John Muir, third; Henry Graham and Harold Martin, Edison, fourth.

Junior high boys' doubles—John Villalobos and Joe Campos, Delhi, first; Donald Nelson and Arthur Johnson, Edison, second; Ernest Webb and James O'Campo, John Muir, third.

Police News

N. D. McDonald, 48, Alhambra oil man, was arrested near here last night on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. He was lodged in the county jail. Officer Oscar Kelley, member of the California highway patrol, made the arrest.

J. R. Barker, of 100 South Main street, reported to police last night that his car was stolen from that address.

Four small boys were arrested yesterday afternoon in the Kress store at 113 East Fourth street, after the management had complained that the boys were "helping themselves" to articles in the store. They were given a lecture and released.

Thieves who broke into the Crane warehouse at 919 Polaris street, early last night, apparently were frightened away before anything of value was taken, police reported. A search of the premises revealed the fact that entrance was made after a window had been broken.

Clothing valued at $15 was reported stolen from the home of Raymond Metzger, 202 Orange avenue, yesterday afternoon, according to a police report.

CAPONE TRIAL DATE SET FOR SEPTEMBER 8

"The matters covered by the (conspiracy) indictment should be presented to another grand jury and the enumeration of overt acts the defendants and others are charged with which covers substantial offenses within a period of the statute of limitations for which a heavier penalty is provided than that under the conspiracy indictment.

"The court will not believe, unless it is forced to do so, that the language of this indictment was chosen without probable cause merely for the purpose of creating the impression that this defendant had been a flagrant law violator over a long period of time.

Probe Ordered

"This is a matter which must be inquired into fully."

Judge Wilkerson read his statement after a conference in chambers with Leopold Melnik and Michael Ahearn, Capone's attorneys, United States District Attorney George E. Q. Johnson, Johnson's assistants, Victor LaRue, Dwight H. Green, Jacob I. Grossman and Samuel Clawson; William Froelich, sent from Washington to aid the Capone cases; A. P. Madden, chief of the intelligence unit here, and a number of investigators.

In addition to Capone, Thomas Nash, the third of his attorneys, was missing.

Members of the federal grand jury also were present in chambers. After the conference, Judge Wilkerson ascended the bench and read his written statement.

"The grand jury may step forward," he said next.

Not a word had been spoken in the surprised courtroom, except by Judge Wilkerson.

The grand jurors then were charged to investigate the Capone liquor conspiracy.

Drama is Closed

"Gentlemen," said Judge Wilkerson, talking to the grand jury, "there was returned in this court an indictment, United States versus Al Capone et al (the other defendants number 68) in June of this year.

"The defendants are charged in this indictment with conspiracy to violate a certain statute. Following a rule inclusive of this kind of case, certain overt acts were charged, among them conspiracy to violate the prohibition law in the manufacture of intoxicating liquor.

"I charge you to look into this and see whether or not there were subsequent offenses."

Judge Wilkerson then left the bench and the courtroom drama was over. The principals departed quickly, none willing to offer any word of comment.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—(UP)—The justice department approved an agreement by federal prosecutors with Al Capone whereby leniency was to be recommended for the Chicago gangster in exchange for a plea of guilty, it was learned today.

The leniency recommended was to have been made by the prosecutor in Chicago.

The arrangement was such as has been entered into in numerous similar cases. There was no indication that the agreement specified any definite sentence for Capone on charges of evasion of the income tax law and conspiracy to violate the prohibition law.

Junior high boys' singles—Oliver Pickens, Edison, first; Albert Saldana, Fremont, third; Louis Castaneda, Delhi; Merle Mitchell, McKinley and John Johnston, Wilson, were other entries.

Police News

N. D. McDonald, 48, Alhambra oil man, was arrested near here last night on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. He was lodged in the county jail. Officer Oscar Kelley, member of the California highway patrol, made the arrest.

J. R. Barker, of 100 South Main street, reported to police last night that his car was stolen from that address.

Four small boys were arrested yesterday afternoon in the Kress store at 113 East Fourth street, after the management had complained that the boys were "helping themselves" to articles in the store. They were given a lecture and released.

Thieves who broke into the Crane warehouse at 919 Polaris street, early last night, apparently were frightened away before anything of value was taken, police reported. A search of the premises revealed the fact that entrance was made after a window had been broken.

Clothing valued at $15 was reported stolen from the home of Raymond Metzger, 202 Orange avenue, yesterday afternoon, according to a police report.

Anaheim Program Attracts Crowd

Fully 5000 persons were present last night at the Anaheim city park concert when the fourth concert program of the season was presented by a group of 10 Russian and American actors, singers and instrumentalists and dancers from the Russian American Art club of Hollywood, under the management of Mae Norton and the direction of Alexander Govilov.

Park tables were filled to capacity before the concert, reservations having been made by more than 400 people to use the tables in the park before attending the concert.

CARTER CASE IS DISMISSED BY JUDGE AMES

On motion of Deputy District Attorney William Menton the action against Robert Carter, accused of assault with a deadly weapon, was dismissed this morning by Superior Judge H. G. Ames. Carter had entered a plea of guilty on January 6 of this year to a charge accusing him of firing a shotgun into a group of boys who were driving past his home at Yorka Linda.

Two of the boys were so severely wounded that each lost the sight of one eye. According to medical testimony introduced at the hearings Phillip Lish, one of the boys is totally blind in one eye and the vision of the other is rated at 15 per cent. Harold Stamba is the other boy who lost the sight of one eye.

Pronouncement of sentence on young Carter was delayed for six months, pending action of the youth and his father toward the payment of bills incurred for medical treatment of the wounded boys. Last Friday was the date set for pronouncing sentence but a postponement was secured until Thomas Madden, attorney for Carter, and Deputy District Attorney Menton could confer relative to future payment of bills for medical attention.

Carter, called to the witness stand this morning testified that he already has paid $1452 for treatment and hospital bills for the boys wounded by his son and had assumed an additional obligation of $502.50, due Dr. George Sellon of Fullerton. He testified that he has exhausted his resources and is living on borrowed money at this time pending sale of his orange crop.

Judge Makes Statement

Prior to dismissing the action Judge Ames made a statement in which he said that at the time of the first trial some of the parents of the boys injured by Carter had requested the suspension of operation of any judgement that might be rendered in the case and that everyone, at that time seemed to be in favor of giving the boy another chance. He said the father had paid $1452 for treatment of the wounded boys and had assumed additional bills. Any testimony against the character of Robert Carter, the judge said should have been introduced at the time of the trial as investigations have revealed that since entering the plea of guilty the youth has been leading an exemplary life.

Relative to charges that Carter's father had refused to pay certain bills the court said that while the court expected the wounded boys to have the best medical attention available it did not mean that the parents should consult five specialists and expect Carter to pay their bills. The court intimated that the services of two specialists were legitimate attention. Carter had testified that the bills he refused to pay were for the services of specialists consulted after the wounded boys had been placed in the hands of physicians for medical care.

FISHERMEN OF NEWPORT GIVEN GOOD WORKOUT

Well, sir, it was a fine day for fishing, so Jim Wood got into his sturdy rowboat and headed for the wide open places in the Pacific.

Jim was about a mile off Newport Beach when a marlin swordfish grabbed his hook. Right away, fish, man and boat began to go places. The fisherman was determined not to let go the line and the fish was equally determined that he wasn't going to stay hooked.

The battle between man and fish lasted for several hours, with Wood about exhausted from holding onto the line and the swordfish still going strong.

About that time coast guard cutter No. 254 appeared on the scene and asked Wood if he wouldn't like some assistance. The fisherman felt a strong tug on the line and decided that he did.

But do you think this marlin swordfish would stand for any such thing. Not on your life! This marlin promptly threw away the hook and line and disappeared. The coast guard towed the row boat and fisherman to Newport harbor, where Wood gave out details of his strange encounter.

But wait. We're not through yet. Newport Beach has so many fish stories the citizens don't know what to do. That's why they are dividing them up with the neighbors.

Jim Stevenson got two fishes on his two-hook line. After a few minutes one got tired of playing and slipped away. The other hung on for a while and then raced away to join its companion. Stevenson estimated that each fish weighed at least 100 pounds.

C. F. Axelsson, Southland manufacturer, who keeps his yacht Mayan at Newport Beach, hooked a 125-pound marlin swordfish and what's more, landed it.

Henry Wright, of the yacht Vampire, related a story of a big battle with a king dolphin, weighing 18 pounds, Wright brought the dolphin in.

All of these fishing enterprises took place yesterday. To go back a few days, C. W. Brooks and M. L. DeGrasse landed a 200-pound hammerhead shark after a battle that lasted 1 1/2 hours.

Yes, fishing is good at Newport Beach.

NIGHT GOLF COURSE TO OPEN IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, July 31.—(UP)—An attempt to popularize night golf—not the miniature kind—will be made at a nine-hole course opening here Saturday night.

Nine steel towers, each 75 feet high, have been installed on the short course at a cost of about $22,000. Tests made this week revealed that the flight of the ball is more easily followed under this lighting system than it is in the daylight.

The distance of the holes varies from 75 to 165 yards, and all clubs may be used except wooden ones.

The sponsors of the project believe that if it meets with the expected success the ancient game of golf will be revolutionized throughout the country.

DEATHS

A WORD OF COMFORT

This word will be a sorry place for you, now that your dear one has gone, unless you animate it with your own soul.

Amid the crowds you will be as lonely as though left in the desert, except as you reach out for the consciousness of the nearness of the one you love.

Hold fast to the ideal which you have shared together. Reverence the shrine you both have built of love and friendship and make new ones as you lend a hand to those who find the pathway lonely and their burdens overwhelming. Fulfill your own tasks with the sense that your dear one cheers you on. Make life rich and as beautiful as you can. At the end of the road you are to join your best beloved.

Mitchell—Mrs. Bertha Mitchell, 42, 602 Daisy St., on July 31, 1931. Survived by husband, Oscar Mitchell, and son, Lynwood. Funeral arrangements to be announced later by Winbiger Funeral home.

DOSS—July 30, 1931, in Los Alamitos, William N. Doss, age 48 years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Minnie Leona Doss; five sons, W. M. and Nolan M., of Santa Ana; Felton, A., of Cypress; and three daughters, Mrs. Gertrude G. Stewart, of Anaheim; Mrs. Sarah A. Reed, Santa Ana; and Miss Viva Leona Doss, of Los Alamitos. Announcement of funeral later by Harrell and Brown, 116 West Seventeenth street.

KYLE—Funeral services are to be held at the Grooms Funeral chapel at Costa Mesa, tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. for William James Kyle, 44, who passed away last night. Interment is to be made in Central Memorial park.

We wish to express our appreciation and sincere thanks for the kind and sympathetic shown us by our many friends and neighbors during our recent bereavement. MRS. PHILIP KNOX AND FAMILY.

Tax Delinquencies Show 30 Per Cent Increase Over 1930

Tax delinquencies this year are 80 per cent over last year, according to a report released today from the office of County Tax Collector John Lamb. The total charged on tax rolls for this year was $5,597,431.14. Of the total amount charged on the tax rolls the uncollected amount is $286,755.29 and cancellations amounted to $9,355.

Personal property taxes collected to date amount to $565,761.47 which is considerably under the amounts collected in previous years. The depreciation of the amount collected and to be collected on personal property is due, according to County Assessor James Sleeper, to the fact that the business depression has caused considerable depreciation in the value of oil leases and properties and the stocks of merchandise carried in stores.

CONFESSIONS TO CITY POLICE: LODGED IN JAIL

Jealousy, aided and abetted by anger and bootleg whiskey, early today caused Oscar Mitchell, 40, Santa Ana negro janitor, to shoot and almost instantly kill his wife, Bertha Mitchell, 40, at their home at 602 Daisy street.

Following the shooting Mitchell calmly awaited the arrival of the police, surrendered and confessed the crime before being locked in the county jail, charged with murder.

The body of the woman was taken to the Winbiger funeral home, where Coroner Charles D. Brown announced he would hold an inquest Monday. She had been shot only one time, the bullet entering the right chest, just above the breast. Death followed in a few minutes and an artery is believed to have been severed. The gun used was a .32 calibre automatic.

When police took the gun away from the murderer, there were still five shells in the magazine. Questioned at the police station a short time after the crime, Mitchell declared that he and his wife "fell out" five weeks ago. She went to La Jolla where she was employed until three days ago when she returned to Santa Ana. She did not come home however, Mitchell said, but stayed at the home of a friend, Julia Sultzer, at 605 Daisy street.

Tells Reason

"I asked her if she was coming home and she said 'No, I got a man,'" Mitchell said.

He said he warned her at that time that "he couldn't stand that," and she bragged that she would bring the man to him and "flaunt him in my face." I told her she couldn't do that," he said.

Mitchell said his wife returned home last night for the first time since she left him five weeks ago.

"Last night I laid in the hedge next to my house all night. About daybreak today I saw a man slip out of my house. I don't know who he was. It wasn't light enough for me to recognize him. I made up my mind then I was going to kill her," he said.

"Why didn't you kill the man instead?" he was asked.

"No, I didn't want to kill no man," he answered.

"You wanted to kill the woman?"

"Yes," he answered.

Mitchell then related the story of how he accosted his wife this morning and after a few words with her, jerked out his pistol and shot her. "Sure, I killed her," he said.

Bought Pistol

He admitted buying the pistol here several days ago, but refused to state that he had intentions of killing the woman at that time. "I was going away, and I wanted the pistol for protection," he said.

That the killing was premeditated was indicated in a statement that he decided to kill his wife at daybreak today when he saw the man come from his house. Mitchell and his wife had been married for the past eight years, he declared. They had lived in Santa Ana all that time. The dead woman was the mother of Lynwood Young, also known as Mitchell, well known negro singer and radio entertainer. Lynwood is employed as a bootblack at a local barber shop. Mitchell is his stepfather.

Police said that Mitchell was drunk when they arrested him today. On his person beside the pistol was found two razors and two big pocketknives.

Junior Library Closed Saturday

The junior department of the Santa Ana public library will be closed for the coming few days, commencing tomorrow night at 6 o'clock. During this time the department will be moved to new quarters in the Masonic temple.

According to Miss Mary Bowyer, head of the junior library, no books from the junior department are to be returned during the time it is closed, either at the junior department or the public library, and no books will be considered due until the junior department is reopened. It is expected that Wednesday will be the opening day.

Bladder Weakness Clears Right Up Or Money Back

No matter how much you have been tortured by painful urinations, loss of sleep and back-breaking aches caused by bladder or kidney weakness, do not give up. You can secure prompt, grateful relief through Wildunger Tea, or it won't cost you one penny.

Wildunger Tea is a simple German herb preparation in which is combined the valuable mineral salts from famous Wildunger Bad, a New York doctor was so impressed with the results obtained by European kidney sufferers that he brought Wildunger Tea to this country. Now it is prescribed by physicians here.

Get a big box from your druggist. Use it all, according to the plain, simple directions on the package. Unless you are absolutely convinced that you are getting well, return the empty box and get your money back. Wildunger Tea can be had at C. S. Kelly, Druggist, 101 East 4th Street, Santa Ana.

F. F. Merriam May Give Address At Veterans' Picnic

That attendance at the picnic and annual meeting of Sons and Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War would be greatly augmented was thought by program officials when it was learned today that Lt.-Gov. Frank F. Merriam, of Long Beach is arranging his schedule in an effort to be present and speak before the gathering Monday night at Irvine park. J. F. Burke, may also be a speaker on the program, it was announced.

The group will gather at the park at 7 p. m. and will be furnished with martial music by the Coast drum corps. Coffee and refreshments will be furnished by the table committee but those in attendance are requested to bring their own table service, according to the table committee composed of W. J. Davis and C. F. Miller.

Following the program there will be dancing at the park pavilion. All who are eligible for membership in this organization are requested to come, by those in charge.

YOUNGER BOYS OF Y TO HAVE OSCEOLA TURN

Younger boys of Santa Ana and Orange will have their turn at the Y. M. C. A. summer camp at Osceola next Friday, when the annual "Friendly Indian" camp for the south part of the county will open.

This week, the younger boys of the north part of the county are in camp, led by Archie Raft of Fullerton. There are about 75 in this group. Next Friday they will be brought home, and their places will be taken by the local boys who will stay for one week, returning on August 14, to make way for the Girl Reserves, who will use the camp from August 14 to 21.

Boys' Secretary D. T. Tibbals, who will have charge of the local Friendly Indians in camp reports that present registrations point to a total of between 60 and 70 boys in his group. He is still receiving applications. Boys from 10 to 12 years of age are accepted for this camp.

Reservations already made from Santa Ana include Richard Ahlefeld, Vernon Ashby, Arthur Beard, Gilbert Bell, Richard Brown, David Brown, John Cleary, Paul Cleary, Billy Detrikke, John Harbourn, Wayne Harris, Earl Haven, Ralph Haven, John Henderson, Walter Knipe, Teddy Knowlton, Philip Lamm, Douglas Leonard, W. A. Nichols, Winston Nichols, Keith O'Connor, Howard Piper, Howard Rapp, Raymond Ross, Harold Stowe, Harry Thompson, Ferris Wall, Oswald Williams.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 31.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals today assumed control of the franchise of the Elmira club in the New York-Pennsylvania league. The acquisition of the Elmira team brings the number of minor league farms owned and operated by the St. Louis National league club to nine.

ELLIOTT FAMILY GROUP BOASTS FIVE GENERATIONS

Five generations of one family are gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Elliott, four miles northeast of Huntington Beach.

The head of the group is Mrs. Sarah Castle, 87 years old. Her daughter, Mrs. Mary Elliott, is 71 years old. Then comes P. W. Elliott, 49-year-old son of Mary Elliott.

Arriving home for a visit yesterday came Virgil Elliott, Christian church minister at Greensburg, Pennsylvania. He is accompanied by his wife and 2-months-old daughter, Donna Mae.

To indicate how rare it is for five generations of one family to be living at the same time, it is recalled that usually elapses between the first and the fifth generation. In most families the five generations are separated by 150 years, according to statements by medical men.

UNION CHURCH SERVICES DURING SUMMER TO BE HELD SUNDAY EVENINGS

The churches of Santa Ana today announce the opening of the annual season of union services during the month of August, to be conducted under the auspices of the Ministerial Association.

Each Sunday evening there will be an open air vesper service at Birch park at 5 o'clock, and an evening service in the First Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock. Various ministers will take turns in preaching and music will be provided by musicians from the different churches.

The service at Birch park Sunday evening this week will be conducted by the Rev. O. W. Reinus, pastor of the Richland Avenue M. E. church, who has announced as his subject, "The Task of Accounting for Jesus." This service will start promptly at 5, and will last for just one hour.

Special musical features have been arranged for this opening program by E. G. Warner, program chairman, and musical director of the Richland Avenue church choir. These will include a group of selected vocal solos by Kathryn W. Barnard, talented soprano soloist, also a trombone solo by D. C. Clanton, director of Santa Ana municipal band, accompanied at the piano by Elizabeth Lehnhard.

Another special musical feature will be the appearance of a brass sextette, playing the paraphrase from "The Church in the Wildwood," in which William Motley, Owen Owens, Harold Lutes, Carl Gunn, Thomas Flippen and D. C. Clanton will participate.

The evening service, at the First M. E. church, will have as the preacher the Rev. O. Scott McFarland, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, whose subject is "The Measure of God's Love." The music will be under the guidance of Miss Ruth Armstrong.

S. A. Firm To Do Landscaping Job

The Huntington Beach elementary school board has awarded to Blanding Nurseries, Santa Ana, a contract for landscaping of the elementary school grounds. The work will be done in units, with the first unit to cost $300. The total expenditure is expected to amount to $10,000.

The contract is one of the largest of its kind signed in Orange county. The walks will be rearranged, planting corrected and planting near the new gymnasium completed.

HUDKINS ARRESTED FOR DRIVING DRUNK

HOLLYWOOD, July 31.—(UP)—Ace Hudkins, middleweight boxer, known as the "Nebraska Wildcat," was under arrest today on a charge of suspicion of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Hudkins was lodged in the Hollywood jail last night after police said he drove his automobile into a parked car owned by the Rev. Allen A. Hunter and knocked it 75 feet. The boxer was riding alone and there was no one in the parked car.

The arrest followed by a few hours the announcement that Hudkins would meet "Dynamite" Jackson, 200-pound Negro, in a 10-round bout August 25 at the Olympic auditorium, Los Angeles.

WELFARE HEAD EXPLAINS WHO MAY BE HELPED

Further explanation of the meaning of the word "indigent" as given in the dictionary is required when it is applied to applications for county assistance, according to W. S. Gregg, director of the Orange county department of social welfare. The dictionary defines the word as "a person without means; poverty; poverty; in need of substance; destitute of means, etc."

Because of the many applications of the word Gregg has taken issue with a recent published statement that "anyone in need can be helped and 'no questions asked'." Gregg said, "Do not expect the taxpayers' money to be spent in that manner. A private individual or club or society can make their expenditures without question but the law requires proof of need before expending county funds and even then the welfare department quite often is victimized by people who have no self-pride, or are professional beggars, willing to take advantage of any condition of affairs to seek something for nothing."

"This department is ready and willing to consider any case sent in but one should not get angry if our investigation reveals facts unknown to the party reporting the case and we prove that help is unnecessary. We do not hesitate to expend funds in legitimate cases."

In defining indigence, Gregg said the term does not mean that because of sickness a family with $800 to $1000 on deposit in a bank is entitled to county assistance in order to preserve this deposit for future use. It is well to have friends who are sympathetic, Gregg said, but it is sometimes embarrassing to the applicant when advised that they are entitled to county allowances, because of some misfortune that has necessitated the expenditure of part of the family savings, and then be refused. When the savings are expended and there is need, then is the time to ask for county aid.

Budget Requests To Be Announced

Data relative to budget requests of various Orange county departments for the fiscal year 1931-32 will be released for publication tomorrow morning according to an announcement today by County Auditor William Lambert. The official budget requests from all departments of the county government are filed with the board of supervisors for action in determining the cost of government. Figures are being checked in Lambert's office today.

In announcing the date for releasing requests made by the various department heads Lambert said that at the same time he would be prepared to give comparative figures relative to last year. Securing of this data requires considerable rechecking of last year's budget requests and other material.

DROPPED THREE TITLES

Of four major championships in football, basketball, baseball and track won by Southern California in 1929-30, only the track honors were retained during the 1930-31 school year. Washington State swiped the football laurels, California took basketball honors and Stanford won the baseball pennant.

Watch Is Stolen From H. L. Rankin By Baby Bandits

A short time after Herbert L. Rankin, of the Rankin Dry Goods company here had reported to police that his watch was stolen from a wash room at the store, Detective T. J. Smith arrested two small boys, ages 6 and 7, on the street. One of the youths had the watch.

The boys were taken to police station, given a lecture and freed. No complaint was filed against them.

Smith learned that a youth was trying to sell a watch and locating him attempted to buy the watch. The boy was just ready to make the sale when Smith took him into custody.

L. L. McFarland of 2703 North Main street reported to the sheriff's office today that a wallet containing $75 in cash and two checks was stolen from the service station he operates at that address, last night.

REAL ESTATE MEN HEAR TALK ON APPRAISAL

Economic aspects of real estate appraisal were outlined by Ivan Thorson at Ketter's cafe when 50 guests representing seven realty boards of the twelfth district gathered Wednesday night for the second appraisal session sponsored by the Santa Ana board. In the absence of Frank McCarter, the meeting was presided over by W. F. Croddy, secretary of the local board. Croddy introduced George W. Smith, of Laguna Beach, who represented the state real estate association and spoke briefly. Joe Mitchner introduced the speaker of the evening.

Thorson declared that the advent of machinery into the business of farming has thrown approximately $5,000,000 acres of land out of natural production. This land formerly was used in producing grain and feed required for horses used in farm operations. He also spoke of the Russian five year plan and the effect it has had on wheat production and cheap manufacturing.

Getting down to the issues of appraising property Thorson declared land values are based on the use to which the land can be placed and the scarcity of land. Economic wealth can be defined as anything useful belonging to man that can be transferred. Finally, he declared, is merely the common denominator on which transfers are based.

Less than 13 per cent of the improved real estate is improved to its highest utility, according to Thorson, who drew comparisons to prove this statement. Speaking of income property such as office buildings he said that the cost is the undesirable part of the building and the income is listed as the desirable portion.

Following Thorson's talk the meeting was thrown open for discussion of appraisal problems confronting realtors of the district. Realty boards from the twelfth district represented at the meeting last night were Whittier, Montebello, Anaheim, Orange, Laguna Beach, Balboa and Santa Ana.

Employees Enjoy Picnic At Beach

ORANGE, July 31.—Employees of the Maroney Furniture company were guests of the company at a beach party Wednesday evening.

Moonlight swimming in the bay was enjoyed and later weiners were roasted.

Mr. and Mrs. Maroney and little daughters, Margaret and Verna Bell, have been spending sometime at the beach and with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Higgins were hosts at the affair.

Those present other than the hosts were Miss Beryl Ludlow, Clyde Higgins, Miss Jaunita Fowler, Ed Kitchen, Grant Goddicksen, Bob Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Opp and daughter, Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Newman, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Valentine and two children, Shirley and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingram, Mrs. Bessie Fowler and Harry Garver.

COMING TO SANTA ANA

Ethel Barrymore, leading American actress, who will appear at the Fox Broadway theater on August 11, in one of the greatest stage successes, "The School for Scandal." It is the first time that Miss Barrymore has ever played Santa Ana.

SPEAKER HITS OPPONENTS OF PROHIBITION

Condemning liquor interests that spend millions of dollars annually in an attempt to defeat the purposes of the 18th amendment and declaring that the only way for dry forces to combat them was to expend their resources in an effort to kill the wet propaganda, former Congressman William D. Upshaw, known as the "Georgia Whirlwind," addressed a public meeting of the Lincoln Progressive league held last night in the Washington Grammar school in Garden Grove.

"How can Roosevelt, Raskob, Dwight Morrow and other wet leaders say the 18th amendment is a failure," he cried, "when the law put over 177,000 saloons out of business in one night? Liquor has no conscience, no character and those who represent it have no chance to hold vital public offices."

Upshaw was introduced by Ethel G. Hubler, publisher of the California Voice, said to be the oldest prohibition paper in the United States, who told of how he had lain in bed for seven years in a plaster cast when a boy, but how this had not affected his ambition to do good, and that he had been congressman from Georgia for eight years and was recognized as one of the nation's leading orators.

"America's Greatest Battle," was the title of the speech given by Upshaw last night. He said in part:

"America's greatest battle is not economic, although the soundest and sanest economics are bound up in its solution; that battle is not industrial, although no great industry can properly function whose man power does not sustain the right relation to this question; America's greatest battle is not agricultural, whatever we may think and feel and know about 'Uncle Reuben' and his farm problems; America's greatest battle is not political, from a partisan standpoint, although the purest and cleanest and bravest politics—non-partisan politics—must be dedicated to the winning of this great unfinished fight."

"What is that battle? As I see it, it is a fight for the soul of this nation—it is a battle to prove to the eyes of our children that their parents who enacted America's prayer-born, constitutional prohibition law, are not incompetents, but are grandly able to redeem and illustrate the wisdom of this law which was passed after generations of education and agitation by due constitutional procedure.

"It is a battle also to prove to the nations of the world that we knew what we were about when this law was passed by the most overwhelming majority that ever carried an amendment into our constitution and we now propose to illustrate before the upward march of our Christian civilization that our prohibition law shall not prove a national tragedy nor an international farce."

"This is the great fight that confronts serious-minded, patriotic Americans."

"Every fair-minded American, although formerly as wet as the Gulf of Mexico, should be willing to give the prohibition law a square deal. You know that the law thus far has not had it. You know that for the most part the enemies of prohibition who prophesied that the law would fall have done their devilish best to prove that evil prophecy true."

"We have the names of 45 wet organizations that have come into being since the 18th amendment was enacted for the unworthy, unpatriotic purpose of nullifying and destroying this prayer-born, constitutional law. Certainly, then, we ought to support the California Voice, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Anti-Saloon league as the great fighting forces of prohibition patriots in redeeming the wisdom and righteousness of the 18th amendment."

BAND CONCERT ATTRACTS GREAT THROG TO PARK WITH SOUTHERN MELODIES

By RUTH ANDREWS

Playing to one of the largest crowds yet to assemble in Birch Park during the current series of summer concerts, the Santa Ana Municipal Band, directed by D. C. Cianfoni, offered a picturesque novelty program in honor of "Southern Night" last evening, which was heartily enjoyed by a throng estimated in excess of 5000 people.

That music ever remains the universal language and one of the most potent mediums of expression to wake a common response in the hearts of all men regardless of race or color, was

Selections programmed by the band were for the most part suggestive of the old South. A group of appropriate spirituals offered by a colored ensemble of about 30 members of the Second Baptist church also proved an interesting feature, lending its effective touch of realistic color.

As its name implied, the buoyant march, "Ebony Syncopations" (Fulton) at once struck the Southern note which prevailed throughout the program, with the exception of one number, the favorite old "Foot and Peasant" overture (Suppe) offered by the band in response to numerous requests which have come in since opening of the series.

The modernistic contrast, an arrangement of Kern's popular "Show Boat" proved one of the most novel selections offered, the suggestive succession of typical Negro themes in which the works abounds lending a popular jazz note, heightened by frankly syncopated rhythmic patterns, the hint of "blue" notes, stirring accent of trombone, with reiteration of the familiar "Ole Man River" as a basis theme.

Typical Negro spirituals rendered by the mixed chorus of 30 colored singers proved appealing to the audience, who paid the group hearty tribute. The colored chorus sang effectively three characteristic spirituals, "Joy to My Soul," "Hand Me Down My Silver Trumpet," and the familiar "Little David, Play Your Harp," directed by Lynwood Mitchell, youthful colored tenor, Mitchell, in a group of solos, chose Wolf's "Gwine to Heaven," to which he brought solemnity and clarity of diction, also the beautiful spiritual, "Deep River," which was also much enjoyed.

The latter half of the concert was composed of several very typical Southern compositions, including Bendix' "Grand Fantasia on Antediluvian Negro Melodies," a sprightly potpourri of familiar songs, Contorno's "Southern Plantation Songs" in similar vein combined familiar contrasting themes from Steven Porter and other Southern song-writers, the favorite "Dixie" arranged in effervescent finale.

Suggestive of Southern plantation life, Clarke's quaint "Passing the Cotton Fields" with its touches of humor proved popular, as did the melodious Middleton sketch, "Down South," also in light vein.

According to Harry Hanson, president and manager of the band, next week's program will feature "Italian Night," always a program of especially widespread appeal. A special feature will be the appearance of a Los Angeles soloist, Marion Haney, coloratura soprano, who is appearing through the courtesy of Guido Caselotti, prominent opera coach of the neighboring city.

DOUBT COCHET WILL JOIN TILDEN PARTY

PARIS, July 31.—(UP)—Intimation that he will not become a professional tennis player was given by Henri Cochet, internationally famous French star, today when he announced that he had agreed to play for France in team matches against Italy at Evian-les-Bains, France, late next month.

Jack Curley, New York sports promoter and head of the William Tilden Tennis Tours, Inc., has been endeavoring to sign Cochet to a contract calling for appearance against Tilden, Karel Kozeluh of Czechoslovakia and others.

ANNOUNCE NEW QUARTERS FOR LOAN COMPANY

The Santa Ana branch of Pacific States Savings and Loan company will formally occupy the new home at 115 West Fourth street tomorrow morning, it was learned today.

In moving from its temporary Main street location the company is entering into quarters which its officers believe will prove more convenient to its many Orange county customers. The new premises have been remodeled and furnished and will incorporate full facilities for the accommodation of the institution's growing business here.

Special features will mark the opening, according to W. L. Copeland, manager of the Santa Ana office. Thousands of invitations have been sent throughout the country and it is planned to keep the offices open until 9 o'clock on Saturday evening to accommodate visitors.

MANAGER

W. L. Copeland, below, is manager of the Santa Ana office of the Pacific States Savings and Loan company, which is moving into new quarters today in the office formerly occupied by the Home Mutual Loan company on West Fourth street.

Although Pacific States Savings has been established in Santa Ana less than two years it has been privileged to render a signal service to Orange county, said Copeland. "With the traditional faithfulness which has marked the institution during the 42 years of its existence, we have safeguarded the funds of our hundreds of Santa Ana savers."

$600,000 in Loans
"Moreover, we have assisted in the upbuilding of this community through the placement of more than $600,000 into sound financing of homes and income properties here, an amount which exceeds the total of our local savings."
"Furthermore, we believe this community now recognizes the worthiness of our institution's service in its acquisition and orderly conversion of fidelity assets."
"On the other hand, Pacific States Savings is appreciative of the reception we have received. Since January 1 of this year our

SURVEY SHOWS LEGISLATURES AID DRY ACTS

Legislatures in many states during the 1930-31 sessions which had repeal bills of one form or another in connection with the 18th amendment before them, defeated the measures, it is shown in a recent article in the Christian Century.

The states where bills adverse to the prohibition measure were defeated are California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Iowa, Indiana, Missouri, New Jersey, Oklahoma, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah, Rhode Island and at the hands of the governor's veto in Illinois.

There are some interesting names on that list—even the two states that refused to ratify the 18th amendment are there. In New Jersey, also, generally supposed the wettest state in the Union, all wet bills and resolutions died in the committee.

Referenda for the repeal of the state prohibition laws were defeated in the legislatures of California, Indiana, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Washington. Resolutions asking for a constitutional convention to repeal the 18th amendment were introduced and defeated in New Jersey, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin (even Wisconsin).

Bills legalizing beer, wine or other liquors were introduced and defeated in the legislatures of Alabama, Nebraska, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, South Dakota and Washington.

On the other hand, a total of 42 states took action either to sustain or strengthen some aspects of their liquor laws.

savings in the local branch have increased 51 per cent. Our occupancy of these new quarters is an expression of our pledge to be a sound and stable asset to further upbuilding of Santa Ana and its neighboring communities.

Copeland has been manager of the Santa Ana branch since its inception. He is a graduate of Valparaiso university and at one time was associated with one of the largest Pacific coast bond houses. He has also had considerable experience in the real estate and title insurance businesses.

EVANGELIST JOHN BROWN IN SERMON USES JESUS' MARCH INTO JERUSALEM AS EXAMPLE

"Thou art not far from God" was the Bible quotation on which Evangelist John Brown based his message last night in the services which culminated in numerous decisions. "The kingdom of God may be at your very door while you may be far away," stated the preacher in speaking to the great crowd which filled the huge tabernacle to capacity.

Led by Elden Farrar, musical director, the congregation spent the opening 30 minutes of the services in singing many old well known hymns. In closing the song service Farrar and Mrs. U. E. Harding stirred the hearts of many when they sang "Dying."

Using the 12th chapter of the gospel according to Mark, beginning with the 15th verse, Brown read to his audience the story of Jesus making his triumphant march into Jerusalem and how the sentiment changed against him. "And in these troubled times when some shouted crown him, some crucify him, a famous lawyer came to Christ and asked him which was the greatest commandment," recited Brown.

"The first commandment is, 'The Lord our God is one and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind and with all thy strength,' declared the revivalist. "The Bible says little about the head but it gets down to the heart. Jesus wants your heart and your whole heart or nothing," asserted the preacher. "Don't be a wishy-washy type that does not know which way he stands," cried Brown. "Either be something and go all the way with God or be nothing; don't go half way."

Love Thy Neighbor
"The next commandment is, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself. If you go take a look at yourself in the mirror some time it would not be so hard to do as you think. God doesn't expect you to love your neighbor as you love your children or wife or husband but as you love yourself."

"There are hundreds of you here tonight who are not far from God," shouted Brown. "The kingdom of God may be at your very door but you are far away. There are people who are determined not to believe. I can feel sorry for the person who finds it impossible not to believe but not the one who is determined not to believe in Jesus Christ. There are other attitudes which draw you away from the kingdom of God, including indifference."

"No person by cold blooded thinking can ever reason his way into the kingdom of God," asserted the preacher. "On the other hand you will never come to Christ Almighty without thinking and thinking seriously. Why don't sinners think? When Jesus said there is only one God, the lawyer said 'You are right' because he had thought. Just stop and think," was the evangelist's plea.

"Every man who has a sincere desire to know Christ will be saved," said the preacher. "If you have no desire you are dead! Morality is not Christianity, but if you are a Christian you are moral. The tragedy of many lives in this tabernacle is that you are not far from God and you never come to Christ but turn your back on the

S. A. REALTORS ARE TO ATTEND STATE MEETING

Two Santa Anans are planning to attend the midsummer meetings of the directors of the California Real Estate association at Del Monte, August 14-15, it was learned today.

Frank Pope will attend as vice president of the association and Joseph P. Smith will represent the state as real estate commissioner. Smith is scheduled to deliver the principal address at the evening smoker. Following the address by Smith a discussion concerning California real estate laws will be led by A. J. Delano of Sacramento, chairman of the legislative council, and will be participated in by directors representing boards in all sections of the state.

Considerable portion of the two-day session will be devoted to discussion of new laws affecting real estate and the state real estate department, according to D. D. Watson, president of the association. The session will open with the tenth anniversary luncheon of the Monterey Peninsula Real Estate board on Friday, August 14, and will close with a golf tournament Saturday afternoon on the historic Del Monte grounds. At the anniversary luncheon Peter Hanson, chairman of the national association appraisal division, will talk on "Condemnation Appraisal Procedure."

Official business will be transacted Saturday morning. Rolland A. Vandergift, director of finance for the state of California, is scheduled for an address at noon on taxation and finances involving the state and its political subdivisions.

Santa Anans To Enter Redlands

REDLANDS, July 31.—Seven Santa Ana students have been accepted for September entrance to the University of Redlands, according to announcement today from

YODELERS ARE BACK AT KREG FOR PROGRAMS

The return of Earl Davis, Santa Ana's yodeling cowboy, and his pals of "range days" will please their many admirers who have heard them in the past from KREG. Earl, Ralph and Sam have met with the most enthusiastic approval of a large audience as evidenced by a constantly ringing telephone in the studio during an unannounced visit by the boys yesterday.

Songs of the cattle lands that easily capture the imagination and take the listener out of his immediate surroundings to an evening campfire on the range are sung by Earl and his pals in a most appealing manner. If you like to be in the land of the cowboy and enjoy his easy, carefree life, take a trip every evening with the boys on their song-journeys to the plains.

Earl and Ralph will be present every afternoon from KREG at 4 o'clock.

One Always Enjoys Doing Business Best with the "Boss"

My new "Sell-Yourself" policy makes this possible here, as I'm handling my own sales work and am on the job until 8 in the evening every week-day and from 9:30 to 12:30 on Sundays. Come in and let me explain about our fine cars. There is much to consider in determining the car that will give the most all-round satisfaction. You wouldn't think of buying a home on the number of rooms ALONE. The architectural design, the location, the state of repair, the size of the lot, and many other things—would have their full share of attention. Yet many families make one of their largest investments—because the wheels ARE red (or NOT RED)—or on some other single detail—without considering other differences, which may have a vastly more important bearing on the all-round satisfaction the car will give. Many, many times persons influenced by the color of the wheels to buy a certain car have surely "kicked themselves" afterward. If you'll come in and see me I'll be glad to show you how to set up YOUR OWN standard of measurement—a "yardstick" based on what you expect your car to DO FOR YOU—and by which you can be sure that you—GET THE MOST FOR YOUR MONEY—NO MATTER WHAT CAR YOU BUY.

An all request program of popular records will be presented this evening from 7 to 7:30 o'clock with the compliments of the Peggy Shop. During this period you are invited to telephone your requests to 4900 and every effort will be made to play them if they are available. An announcement of unusual interest to the women of Orange county will be made at that time.

Anaheim Girl To Be On Air Daily

The program manager of KREG announces that Jessie Morlock, of Anaheim, will entertain KREG fans from 2:30 to 3:00 p. m. every day from now on. She has made a place for herself in the hearts of the fans, the few times that she has been with us, by the way she has answered her requests and many will be pleased to know that this popular entertainer is to be on the air every afternoon.

the second broadcast from the Stadium with Fritz Reiner as conductor.

Toscha Seidel, world-famous concert violinist, and Theo. Karle, tenor, will be the featured artists in the program to be presented over the Columbia network between 6 and 6:30 p. m. today.

RUSSICK WILL PRESENT THIRD HEALTH TALK

The third of a series of talks on health will be given this evening from KREG by R. R. Russick, athletic director of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. His subject will be "Physical Efficiency."

Those of KREG's listeners who have followed Russick's enlightening and practical discussions pertaining to the every day care of the body by right living and the exercise of certain precautions available to all, have found them to be of particular interest. His subjects are selected with the purpose of including as many of the ordinary problems of physical care, together with the answers to these problems, that he can present in the interests of those who would like to learn and appreciate the functions of their physical selves.

It is announced that there will be several more discussions on the subject of health which Russick will conduct at this hour every Friday evening.

ANNOUNCE CHANGES IN KREG SCHEDULE

Because of the re-arrangement of KREG's schedule it has been necessary to change the period of Joe Ringland's program from its scheduled position tonight to 7 o'clock tomorrow night. The popular "Whittier" baritone will sing at the station in response to the many requests of his friends in Whittier and in Santa Ana, and efforts are being made to work out an arrangement whereby he will be able to sing at KREG regularly.

A correction in the schedule announces that Dot McCune will entertain her many listeners from 3 to 3:30 p. m. today. She is another KREG artist who is directly responsible for a busy telephone line to 4900 during her program.

MANHATTAN NIGHT

by William Almon Wolff

INSTALLMENT 6

Peter broke off his musing to get up and stride up and down the roof. The policemen watched him, indifferently—but he knew what would happen if he tried to go downstairs. He glared at the lighted windows. What went on in here? He was furious at the thought of what they must be doing to Martha; more furious still at the futility of his own anger, at its utter lack of any power to be of service to her.

He thought of the mood in which he had left his sister that night. He had achieved more of an effect than he had been at all willing to at her peroxide, of course. He had known then, though very vaguely, that he was taking chances; rather, he had sensed it. He hadn't felt, he thought, so much that something had happened to him, as that something was going to happen unless he was a good deal more careful than he was at all likely to be.

And even that slightly uncomfortable feeling he had been inclined to attribute to the way Carol had talked.

Men, and especially brothers, are like that, of course. Peter always had hated the superior manner Carol sometimes assumed with him, her air of being infinitely wiser than he. And he really hadn't known what she was getting at about the Thayers, anyway.

He might have agreed that Tack and Martha weren't getting along any too well; he'd seen enough for himself to know that they weren't, for that matter. But that didn't mean they were on the rocks, as Carol assumed. They got on each other's nerves, probably, but that was true of a lot of couples. He'd been in New York long enough, by now, to think that the town itself, with its swift, hurried life, the queer, feverish rhythm of its pleasure making, its refusal to allow enough time for sleep, accounted for that. Those kids would snap out of it, all right. There must be some one who could make Tack realize what he was heading for if he didn't stop drinking so much. As for Martha and Evan Ross—Carol had meant Evan Ross, of course—Peter simply didn't believe there was anything in it. He didn't, and he wouldn't.

He could brush Carol's words of warning away as impatiently as he pleased, but they came back to plague him; she had a disconcerting way of being right altogether too often to make her an easy person to ignore. Something else bothered him, too.

He'd told Martha, when she called him up that morning, that she needed to explain anything to him, and he'd meant it. What she chose to do was her own business. Only he wished she hadn't started to tell him something, and then changed the subject. He could see now that that was what had happened at lunch. He wished she'd either told him nothing at all or a good deal more than she had.

He hated that feeling she'd given him, and that came back, now that she wasn't sitting across the table from him, distracting him with her smile, keeping him amused with her talk, to haunt him; that feeling that she really was in some serious, some very real, some possibly quite desperate, trouble. He wasn't curious, at all, or, at least, he quite honestly believed that he wasn't. But he wanted to be able to help her, and he didn't see how he could, unless he knew the whole story.

Getting his thoughts back to Martha herself, rather than to what Carol had been saying about her, did one thing for him, though. It calmed him down, so that he stopped tearing along like a man on his way to a fire, and he nodded, finally, to the inviting gesture of a taxi-driver. His normal good temper was restored when he got home, and he grinned as he shook his head to Manuel's inevitable suggestion of a cocktail.

Manuel was inordinately proud of his cocktails, and was always hurt when Peter didn't want one. The little Filipino's gleaming smile appeared again, though, when Peter gave him his directions about his clothes for the evening. Manuel had an absolute passion for white ties and waistcoats, and the wonder was that a silk hat didn't come to life and purr when Manuel brushed it.

Peter arrived at the Thayer's at that comfortable moment which is neither early nor late, and while he had expected to find Martha and Tack changed from the appearance they had presented when he had last seen them together, their actual appearance did succeed in surprising him. Tack was sober; all his charm was in evidence. Peter decided that he hadn't gone off as much as he had thought.

As for Martha, her sheer loveliness made him catch his breath. Every trace of silliness was gone; she was a perfect hostess, gracious, cleverly cordial, an adept exponent of one of those arts that cannot, after all, be mastered in a single lifetime.

Evan Ross, though, was a link with the night before. He gave Peter a cool, indifferent nod. He was standing by a window, talking to a tall, handsome girl, with full red lips, and red hair; a girl made striking and set apart, somehow, by the startling contrast of her coal black eyebrows to her ruddy hair. Peter didn't know her; didn't remember, indeed, having so much as seen her before. He'd met the other couple who had come before him, though he didn't know them well; Jimmy Bronson and his wife, who introduced him to the girl by the window; and then, of course, to the girl who meant nothing to him, to do with; he learned that her name was Rita Gould. Nor, obviously, did she care to concern herself with him; she nodded, and went on talking to Ross, a little defiantly, he thought.

Kodi, the Thayers' Jap, was moving around with cocktails and rather marvelous canapés; Martha, with an eye on Ross and Rita Gould, deliberately withdrawn from the general group, was leading the talk. She chose to make Peter its object, and, though he hated that, as a rule, he didn't now.

"What are you going to do next?" she said. "I've looked you up since last night, of course, I'd no idea you were so important."

"I'm not," he said distinctly amused. "I had the luck to strike a good lead, and the patience to follow it, that's all. I always get a good laugh out of the people who call me an inventor. I haven't that sort of bean. Next? I don't know. I'll go in for some sort of research after a while, I suppose. But it's rather good fun to loaf, I didn't even take a week off the last six months I spent out West."

"Try and find out what he's going to do!" said Bronson. "The old man's given it up as a bad job, and so have half the tool steel people in the East—eh, Wayne?" He turned to the others. "I ask you! Here's a man who can name his own price for fiddling about with new steel tempering processes and he tells every one to go to the devil so politely that they don't even get sore at him!"

"You keep on doing just that little thing, Pete," said Tack Thayer. "I tell you what—when you get ready to unload the next bag of tricks let me know and we'll get up a syndicate and freeze the soulless corporations out. How about it?"

"What'll you put in, darling?" said Martha. She was smiling; but her voice wasn't; you know the distinction? I suppose you could get some of your creditors to back you, though—they'd be willing to take almost any sort of chance to help you to make enough money to pay them!"

Tack turned to look at her, his eyes hostile and sullen all at once, and, though he'd shaken his head the last time Kodi had offered him a cocktail, he reached for one now, from the tray the Jap had put down.

"I can get all the money I want when I have to," he said. "You ought to know that."

It was trivial, of course, but for Peter it was disturbing; it was another sign of the smoldering hostility between these two. The night before Tack's condition had explained everything; tonight it was different, and, somehow, worse. No one else seemed to notice; Peter shot a quick look at Ross, but he was, seemingly, completely absorbed in Rita Gould and what she had to say. He was glad to hear the bell ring; gladder still, a moment later, to see Betty Rogers coming in, cheerfully apologetic for being late.

"So!" Betty said to Peter. "Last night I had to tell you who Martha was—and tonight—! Didn't I tell you to stop looking at her? Didn't I? 'Ware wife, Peter! You have to know this country.'"

Dinner, then—and as good a dinner, Peter thought, as he'd ever eaten. He had Betty on one side, Rita, who continued to ignore him, on the other; Jimmy Bronson was on Rita's other hand. Ross was beside Martha. Peter saw, and hated himself for noticing it, that they had a good deal to say to one another under the cover of the general talk. He saw something else, too; the way Tack watched Ross, and the contemptuous dislike in Tack's eyes.

He was, in spite of himself, becoming interested in this situation in precisely the fashion that his sister would have been interested; that, as he could guess, Betty, and probably, Marian Bronson, as well, were interested in it. He found himself wishing he could see Rita Gould. He wondered just what her eyes would tell him. Unaccustomed as he was to speculating about people, and their feeling for one another, he had sensed, before dinner, the existence of some undefined, some probably secret, relation between Ross and Rita. Put to it to make a guess, he would, he thought, have suggested that the girl was deeply interested in Ross.

He tried to talk to her, once or twice, when Betty was busy with Tack, who was at her left, but got no encouragement. She didn't so much indicate that she didn't like Peter as that she was totally indifferent to him, and that, of course, didn't strike him as surprising. He didn't get along well, ever, with women like Rita; exotic, languorous women; they made him feel that he ought to be brilliant and subtle, and he didn't know how.

Peter himself never took much to drink; most of the others, this evening, were as abstemious as he. There was champagne, but only Tack let his glass be refilled often. He drank steadily; shifted, presently, to Scotch. And Peter saw the change that drinking wrought in him; saw the sullen look in his eyes; heard the thickening of his voice; marked, again, as he had the night before, the slackness of his hands and the betraying weakness of those muscles of face and jaw that by their failure show the deterioration of a man.

1931 IS REWARDING CAREFUL SAVERS

TOMORROW WE OPEN OUR
NEW SANTA ANA QUARTERS
115 WEST FOURTH STREET

Of what service is Pacific States Savings to Santa Ana?

THE businessmen and institutions of this community, whether "native" or adopted, may rightly expect local support only if they perform a worth-while service to Santa Ana.

The question, "Of what service is Pacific States Savings to Santa Ana?" is, therefore, appropriate at this time of our removal to new quarters.

While an old established California institution, Pacific States Savings is but a newcomer to Santa Ana, having located here less than two years ago. Yet, we have already rendered the community beneficial service.

First: We have safeguarded the funds of our several hundred Santa Ana savings customers with our traditional faithfulness.

Here, as in all other offices, we have met all customers' emergency requests for funds with spot-cash payment of all due principal and interest.

This year has provided one of the most severe tests to which American financial institutions have been subjected, yet Pacific States Savings' latest Statement shows the institution even stronger and more liquid than at the beginning of the year.

Second: We have assisted in the upbuilding of this community through advances on sound real estate security. Our loans outstanding here exceed several times the amount of our local savings funds.

Third: The funds of the certificate holders of Fidelity Savings and Loan Association, hundreds of whom reside in this vicinity, are being safeguarded and conserved to the fullest possible extent, and their earning power maintained, through our acquisition and orderly conversion of the Fidelity assets. No institution less strong and well organized than Pacific States Savings could have successfully undertaken this vital work of salvage.

Pacific States Savings' occupancy of these new quarters, manned by an efficient and courteous staff, confirms our intention to be a permanent factor in this community and to merit its increasing patronage through continued constructive service.

Large and Small Funds Invited

Those who are building their savings for future needs may start here with a modest amount, add to their funds as they please, stop when they please and enjoy the advantage of 5% compounded semi-annually. Those who live wholly or partially on the income from their capital may place funds here in multiples of $100, may earn interest from the date funds are received and stipulate the exact semi-annual dates when they will receive their interest.

Whether or not you are planning the immediate placement of funds in Pacific States Savings, we invite you to call at the new Santa Ana office tomorrow so that we may explain the various savings services of the institution.

Open Tomorrow Night Until 9 O'clock.

Late News From Orange And Nearby Towns

WET WINTER PREDICTED BY S. B. EDWARDS

ORANGE, July 31.—S. B. Edwards, whose weather prophecies the past year have gained him the name of the "Father of Orange," declared yesterday that every sign of the present year points to a wet winter. Rain will begin in September, Edwards says, and the Orange storm drain recently completed will be running at full capacity.

Edwards, who is a rancher and real estate dealer, declares that he bases his forecast on the fact that a great deal of moisture is sweeping across Southern California at the present time and that more rain has fallen in the mountains this season than ever before.

Oldtimers are all agreed on the signs which point to big rains. Edwards says. However, he declares that the biggest reason a great deal of rain will fall is because it is needed. Edwards foretold to a day the "unusual" rains of this summer, basing his forecasts on the air currents.

BREA

BREA, July 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swan spent Monday visiting with relatives and friends, returning Monday night to their home in Burbank.

Bob Close and Lloyd Crabill left Saturday for Yosemite National park and other places of interest in the north. They expect to be away about a week, making the trip by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jones came up Saturday from their ranch home near Ramona. They are remaining over until Wednesday night to attend the installation of officers of Trinity Rebekah and Brea I. O. O. F. lodges. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Miller.

L. J. Harrold of Upland yesterday moved machinery, equipment and stock into the H. A. Goodwin property on South Pomona avenue, where he will conduct a sheet metal and tin shop. Mr. Harrold is moving his shop here from near Los Angeles and expects to have his machinery set and ready for business at the end of the week. He is moving his family here from Upland.

The Misses Elly Terry, Winnifred Crabill, Nina Bush, Armida Curry, Doris Massey, Maxine Massey and Charlotte Cummings returned yesterday from a week at Newport Beach, where they had a cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Bush and family left yesterday for Coulterville, Calif., where they expect to remain at least until the beginning of the fall term of school. Mr. Bush is interested in some mine work near Coulterville and if this meets his expectations the family may remain there indefinitely.

Mrs. E. E. Anderson and sons, Marshall and Tommy, who spent last week at Balboa with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Curtis, have decided to remain over for this week also. Mrs. Curtis will end her stay there August 1 and the entire party will return at that time.

Complete Razing Of Orange Hotel By September 1

ORANGE, July 31.—Very little remains of the second story of the man avenue, which for many years was the only three story building in the city. It is expected that by the first of September the building will be leveled to the ground. Material is being sold and it was said yesterday that the brick, which were manufactured in a brick yard especially opened for the purpose of building the hotel, were sold as fast as they were taken from the walls and cleaned. The bricks are run to the ground on long chutes and strike a bed made of old car tires at the bottom. Here they are cleaned by hand.

Workmen declare that the building is hard to tear down as it was built to stand the onslaughts of time.

KEY BETRAYS AUTO THIEF

KANSAS CITY, Kan.—(UP)—C. L. Simmons knows his keys. And when a negro walked into Simmons' shop and wanted a duplicate made for an automobile key, Simmons thought he recognized the pattern. So he told the negro to return in 15 minutes. In the meantime he called the police and when the negro came back the police arrested him and took his car. Sure enough, it was the same car which had been stolen from Simmons six months before.

American Chop Suey (4 Servings)

2 lbs. fat 3½ lb. pork, diced
2 onions, sliced 1 green pepper, shredded
¾ cup mushrooms, sliced
¼ cup rice, uncooked 1 cup celery, shredded
3 cups stock 1 tsp. salt

Try out pork fat. Add more fat if necessary to complete measurement. In this brown onions slightly, add pork and cook until meat is seared. Add peppers, mushrooms and celery. Put in rice, salt and stock. Cook slowly until vegetables and meat are tender. Serve with whole wheat biscuits or rice, pouring the chop suey over them.

Golf Champions Here Sunday

MRS. PRESSLER, COLEMAN PLAY AT WILLOWICK

Leona Pressler, Fay Coleman, Helen Lawson and Walter Noble, Southern California's premier amateur golfers, will play in a mixed foursome over the Willowick Golf Club's course here Sunday afternoon.

No gallery fee will be charged for the exhibition which is scheduled to get under way at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Pressler, former pro at Hacienda and now of the San Gabriel Country Club, is the Western women's champion as well as Southern California State titleholder. Two years ago she was runner-up to Glenna Collett for the U. S. crown.

Fay Coleman, runner-up for the state championship last year, has already qualified for the National Amateur tournament. He is a product of Los Angeles municipal links and rated as one of the longest drivers in golf. Coleman reached the third round of the U. S. Amateur last year. Then he met a fellow by the name of Jones, Bobby Jones.

Miss Lawson, a student at the University of Southern California, was runner-up to Mrs. Pressler for the state title last year.

Noble, a low handicap man from the San Gabriel club, is well known locally. He is point holder of the Santa Ana Country Club record and is state mixed doubles champion.

Deer Season Due To Open Tomorrow

Facing a season of plentiful deer, Orange county hunters were digging today in closets for their gear. The season for the coastal region from Mendocino to Ventura counties, inclusive, opens tomorrow.

The state fish and game commission said mountain lion control and the mild winter had contributed to a large supply of deer.

Hunters were served the customary warnings to obtain licenses and deer tags and not to mistake other huntersmen for game.

JACOBS THINKS SCHMELING TO REIGN 5 YEARS

BY JAMES L. KILGALLEN (I. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, July 31. — Herr Max Schmeling will retain his title of heavyweight champion of the world "for five or six years—possibly ten," his manager, Joe Jacobs, predicted in an interview today as he made preparations for a trip abroad to talk matters over with the champ. Jacobs will sail for Germany next Tuesday.

Jacobs brushed aside the suggestion that Schmeling is tired of the fight racket and would retire after his next big shot. This rumor, it seems, is "the bunk."

"Schmeling will not box before next June," Jacobs told International News Service. "I am committed to the idea of a once-a-year battle for the champion. I think that is often enough to defend the title."

Sharkey And Carnera Box On Sept. 23

NEW YORK, July 31. — (INS)—Abandoning a match between Tommy Loughran and Jack Sharkey in August, James J. Johnston has announced a definite date for a 15-round match between Sharkey and Primo Carnera, the giant Italian.

The Boston heavyweight and the 270-pound Venetian will meet at Ebbets field September 23, Johnston said, in the event the Madison Square Garden corporation blocks Carnera again, as it did in June, Loughran will substitute.

Johnston planned to use Sharkey and Loughran in August, but Sharkey notified him yesterday he will not be able to box until September. Sharkey's left hand, injured in the Walker match, is still troubling him.

SANTA ANA UNDERDOG FOR CRUCIAL GAME

For the first time since they won the Southern California baseball championship from Cotton, Santa Ana's Stars will be underdogs tonight when they square off against Anaheim's league-leading club.

The mighty Valencia's are clinging like perpetual motion behind their powerful pitching staff, as it will take a super-team to break their long second-half winning streak.

But George Lackey, Santa Ana's optimistic manager, thinks Stars can do it. He knows the team has the best defensive club in the league and feels his hitters are about ready to emerge from a protracted batting slump to follow their winning of the first half pennant.

Anaheim is confident, too. "Team of all Cities" was slow to strike its true stride but Manager George Pace has his men hustling hard now and playing errorless ball behind the amazing pitching of famed "Chico" Sabella.

"Fuzzy" Errington.

Morrill vs. Errington

The pitchers probably will Earl Morrill for Santa Ana and Errington for Anaheim, although

Begin Title Tennis Play Elimination

Eugene Robinson, undefeated winner of the Class B section of the Santa Ana round-robin tennis tournament, was scheduled to play today Lewis Wetherell, 14-year-old junior high school sensation, in the first round of the elimination series between the first five players in Class A and the first three in Class B.

These matches will definitely determine the 1931 city championship, now held by Randolph Bell.

Participants will be Bell, Wetherell, John Cress, Toby White and either Earl Morrill or Arno Finster from Class A and Robinson, L. W. Archer and Franklin Nickey from Class B.

Moyer yesterday won the right to play Finster for the fifth "A" place by eliminating Eddie West, 5-7, 6-2, 6-2.

Bell finished his round-robin schedule undefeated by beating Lester Slaback 6-3, 6-1, 6-3. Don Park defeated Ernest Zimmerman 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.

Santa Ana City league baseball teams tonight reach the halfway point in the second half of their split schedule. A doubleheader will close the third week of their six weeks' program. The 7 o'clock battle pits the Presbyterians and the Public Playgrounds, the 8 o'clock game matches the 20-30 club and Monroe's Pharmacy.

Both of last night's games were forfeited. The Baptists defaulted to Hawley's Sporting Goods, 9-0, because they couldn't mobilize a complete club of eligibles, and Al's Auto Service defaulted to the Santa Ana Moose, 9-0, because they used an ineligible pitcher, "Bomo" Koral.

Hawley's beat the Baptists, aided by a few ineligible, 13-5, but the Moose weren't so fortunate against Al's Auto Service, losing, 4-1. Koral, who pitched a no hit game early in the week, gave the Moose only one blow, a triple by Lutz in the fourth.

JACKIE FIELDS IS GIVEN TITLE BOUT

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—(UP)—Jackie Fields was informed by telegram today by Jack Kearns, his manager, that he will meet Young Jack Thompson, world's welterweight champion, in a title match at Cleveland September 17.

Jacobs could not say at this time who Schmeling will fight next. Of one thing, however, he was positive, it will not be Jack Sharkey.

"Sharkey, because of his failure to do better than draw with Mickey Walker, is out of the picture," said Jacobs. "As far as we are concerned he is on the sidelines, a discredited heavyweight."

"Suppose Sharkey knocks out Primo Carnera in September?" Jacobs was asked.

"That would simply make Walker look all the better," replied Schmeling's manager.

Thought Walker Won

"No matter what Sharkey does in the way of winning fights late this summer and fall, he will have to get rid of Mickey Walker before he has any standing with me," declared Jacobs. In Jacobs' opinion Walker had all the best of it against Sharkey. Jacobs scored seven rounds for Walker, six for Sharkey and called two even.

Jacobs said Schmeling would be willing to meet Walker in Chicago, as suggested, but the fight would have to be for 15 rounds. All of Schmeling's future bouts will have to be 15 rounds or longer, according to Jacobs, who says Max is a slow starter who improves steadily as the fight progresses.

"It's impossible to say at this time who Schmeling's next opponent," Jacobs explained. "There are a few young fellows coming up that may be in the heavyweight picture before long. I mean fellows like Charley Retzlaff of Duluth and Steve Hammes, the former Penn State athlete. Retzlaff is a great fighter and may be ready to meet the best in the heavyweight division before long. He is a coming star."

Max May Enter Films

Jacobs has a number of things to talk over with Schmeling when they meet in Germany. He wants to get a look at Max's injured eye that was hurt in the fracas with Young Stribling at Cleveland.

A number of motion picture concerns want to feature Schmeling in "talkies," according to Jacobs, and after the eye has completely healed Max may do business with them. Then, too, there is that matter of another exhibition tour.

"Schmeling will make another exhibition tour of the United States," Jacobs disclosed. "We made a net profit of between $71,000 and $72,000 on our last tour, which lasted five weeks, and we should do a great deal better next time in view of Max's increased popularity."

EAST BOWS TO SUNSHINE BOYS OF CALIFORNIA

By HENRY McLEMORE

NEW YORK, July 31.—(UP)—Competition being the life of trade (or is it a stitch in time is worth two in the bush) it might be a good idea to start selling a few California athletes down the river. Unless this, or something equally drastic is done, it will soon be a case of California versus the field, no matter what sort of sports event you attend.

This unbalanced state of affairs already exists in track and tennis and the sunshine boys and girls are making rapid strides in all other branches of the industry.

Swamp East on Track

California runners, hurdlers, hot step and jumpers and weight tossers came East for the C. A. A. A. championships not long ago and proceeded to turn the affair into a dual meet between U. S. C. and Stanford. Of course, they were nice about it, making no kicks about the other boys being on the field, nor were they cruel enough to ask their competitors whether they were for Mr. Sweeney, or Mrs. Sweeney.

Tennis is just as bad. In fact, it might even be a little worse, if you'll pardon our slipping into the quaint patois of Park Avenue. Here in the Seabright tournament one of the game's blue ribbon events, and one which attracts a truly national field, the Californians could do no better than place players in the finals of both the men's and women's singles. Of course, one of these players, John Doe now makes his home in Newark, N. J., but it was California where he spent the greater part of his life and where, beneath that benign sunshine, he learned the game.

Rule Baseball Tool

Baseball is more and more coming under the California influence under the 1931 crop of major league rookies being graduates of far western clubs.

Then there is Charley Seaver, a youngster who may take Jones' place in amateur golf, and Eric Pedley and Elmer Boeseke in polo. We can't see to recall any outstanding California ping pong and back-gammon players but we know full well the state is running over with them.

MRS. DRUMM WINS CLUB'S GOLF PLAY

Mrs. F. C. Drumm, earling a 98-21-77, won Class A medal play for women golfers of the Santa Ana Country Club yesterday. She had four strokes on her nearest competitor, Mrs. Oscar P. Pyley, who shot 109-18-81, and five on Mrs. J. L. McFadden, 98-16-82.

Mrs. W. M. Prince was first in Class B with 117-31-86. Mrs. Roy Langley, 118-31-87, and Mrs. Walter Vandermast, 127-40-87, tied for second.

Mrs. Foster Lamm won in Class C with 127-45-82. Second was Mrs. C. J. Cogan, 127-52-85.

Burnette Lane, tournament director, announced that no mixed foursomes would be played at the club Sunday.

both Lackey and Pace reser the right today to shift at last minute to Joe Cornelius Sabella, respectively.

Errington was considered likely choice, however, because holds two successive victories of the Stars, both in magnificent pitched contests. His slow I has been a source of constant annoyance to the local outfit, pecially in the pinches.

If Sabella works, his own fielding skill will be subjected to searching examination. Sabella has never beaten Santa Ana, cause he has never been able handle its great bunting atts and the Stars would be certain aim anew at this asserted weakness.

Anaheim is not particularly worried about Santa Ana's bitting offense, believing that Errington or the husky Sabella much lighter than in other years will patrol their center satisfactorily and that Al Kohler, the Valencia's captain and third sack will attend to the rest so as quickly discourage the fleet Stars. At real hitting, Anaheim thinks perhaps correctly, that its club superior to Santa Ana, even though Lackey's men have battered them on three previous occasions this year.

Anaheim Two Games Ahead

Although terrific criticism has been leveled Anaheim's way its activity in hustling ball players from other localities, the Valencia's have ridden right through the storm undaunted since second half of the split which began June 23. They are ahead two full games ahead of Santa Ana, and a victory tonight virtually clinch their right to playoffs. Olive and Huntington Beach are the only teams in race even with an outside chance of overhauling the Valencia's, best their prospects are none good.

Starting lineups were announced today, but it was presumed that would be no startling changes in the orthodox orders. Anaheim's latest recruits, Maness from Huntington Beach and Higgins from North Long Beach are possible but not probable starters, although both are likely to see action if going is tough. They are two of the best batsmen in the league.

Manager Pace is expected to stick with his winning lineup "Red" Lemon as catcher, R

SENTIMENTAL WINS

You don't always have to win a fight with your fists. Sometimes you can score a victory with the help of sweet sentiment. That is how Mickey Walker, in being awarded a draw with Jack Sharkey, scored a moral victory.

Sharkey beat him, of course. He did not win by an overwhelming margin, it is true, but as far as actual fighting was concerned, he won. He floored Walker. He almost whacked out his eye. He poked him with a darting left hand and smacked him solidly with rights. But when he hit Walker, the crowd was silent. When Walker hit Sharkey even so much as a glancing blow on the shoulder, the 25,000 people at Ebbets Field stormed in applause.

The crowd set up a cheer whenever the smaller Walker led. Actually I do not believe he hurt Sharkey with a single punch, even when, in the 11th round, he caught the sailor off balance against the ropes and plastered him with a volley of rights and lefts.

Gets Break

Walker entered the fight with a tremendous sentimental advantage. This feeling was not limited to the paying customers. It was pretty plain in the press box, too. If there was to be any kind of a break Walker was to get it. Well, he got it.

Walker "got the break," but the Olive was still a mathematical possibility for first place in the National Night league today, having defeated the dangerous Westminster Aviators, 5-2, at Olive last night to retain its hold on third place back of Anaheim and Santa Ana.

Rudy Heman, Olive's great pitcher, battled as well as hurled the Packers to victory. His single in the sixth and his double in the eighth accounted for three runs, the margin of victory.

Westminster made its two runs off the curve-ball expert in the fifth. DeBusk led off with a single, went to second when Shell bobbled it. Gardner scored him with a double, and Gardner raced home on Sauer's single.

Olive got one in the third on Thier's double, a wild pitch and a passed ball; one in the fourth on Shell's single, a wild pitch and McGaughey's single; one in the sixth when Shell was safe on an error, advanced on a wild pitch and tallied on Heman's single; two in the eighth when Shell and Griffith singled and Heman doubled.

WILSON LEADING IN PLAYGROUND LEAGUE

Woodrow Wilson section today moved into undisputed possession of first place in the Santa Ana Playground league following the decisive, 10-4 triumph of its baseball team over Roosevelt yesterday. The Rough Riders were previously undefeated. Harold Youell's great pitching had them helpless yesterday.

STARS GET PITCHER

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—(UP)—Acquisition of Pitcher Lee McEvoy and release of "Burr" Wetzel was announced today by W. H. Lane, president of the Hollywood Coast league baseball club. McEvoy, a right hander, was purchased from the New York Yankees and is scheduled to report next Tuesday. While with Oakland in 1929 he won 22 games and lost 12. Wetzel was suspended recently for breaking training at Portland.

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO'S NEW ATHLETIC PLANT ONE OF BEST IN ORANGE COUNTY

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 31.—The fine new athletic field of San Juan Capistrano union high school, under construction for the past two months, is nearing completion, and the school property will be one of the most imposing in Orange county when the work is finished.

Extending for a distance of two city blocks along the state highway, the north end of the field will be used for football. Here a regulation size field has been made by cleaning out all the old olive trees, which were planted a half century ago, grading down the embankments, and filling in the low places. The huge steam shovel employed on this work, has finished its job, and will be removed this week. A large crew of men will start at once making the terraces, preparing the ground for the lawn, and setting out trees and shrubbery.

A large double tennis court, with cement floor, has been finished, as a part of the new improvements. Next spring a second double court is to be added, adjoining the first, as the high school board of trustees is of the opinion that tennis is the finest all-around outdoor sport students can have. At the same time the new court is constructed, the football field will be grassed.

The total cost of the present improvements is in the neighborhood of $15,000. The work has been done under the personal supervision of High School Superintendent John Malcom, who has forfeited a summer vacation trip to remain on the grounds while the improvements are being made.

MRS. DRUMM WINS CLUB'S GOLF PLAY

Mrs. F. C. Drumm, earling a 98-21-77, won Class A medal play for women golfers of the Santa Ana Country Club yesterday. She had four strokes on her nearest competitor, Mrs. Oscar P. Pyley, who shot 109-18-81, and five on Mrs. J. L. McFadden, 98-16-82.

Mrs. W. M. Prince was first in Class B with 117-31-86. Mrs. Roy Langley, 118-31-87, and Mrs. Walter Vandermast, 127-40-87, tied for second.

Mrs. Foster Lamm won in Class C with 127-45-82. Second was Mrs. C. J. Cogan, 127-52-85.

Burnette Lane, tournament director, announced that no mixed foursomes would be played at the club Sunday.

Two New Business Blocks For Huntington Beach

IMPROVEMENTS UNDER WAY AT BREA

BREA, July 31.—In keeping with requirements made by the ordinance at the time of leasing the Craig building for housing Brea postoffice for the next years, the owners of the building have begun extensive improvements.

Hardwood floors are to be laid on the cement floor now in use. Walls and woodwork throughout the building will be repainted and redecorated. Metal plates will be installed at the window corners and a steel safe to meet specifications set forth by the ordinance is being purchased and installed.

A new dispatch case for work on the out-going mail, new sorters and new parcel post boxes are some of the features which will add materially to the conveniences of the work room. Changes in the lighting of room will be made which will greatly improve the dispatch of work there.

Two sections of boxes will be moved, these two sections forming the right angle in the north corner of the lobby. The lobby wall will thus be set back about four feet, providing considerably more space in the work room, particularly in the dispatching quarters. Postmaster James Mathews explains that the adoption of city delivery service many of these boxes have been idle and that the removal of the two sections will in no way impair the service for those who still use the office for delivery of their mail.

The new lease requires that improvements be completed August 15 and Isaac Craig, is superintending the work, expects to have the building ready that time.

Bean Growers In Move To Save Crops

TALBERT, July 31.—A few of the local lima bean raisers are preparing to attempt something new in an effort to save their bean crops, which are drying up as a result of the hot weather. The plan is to cut the bean vines which have fully grown runners, in the center of the rows, throw the vines back as much as possible and furrow out for irrigation.

Irrigation at the present growth has always been considered impossible, as the water on the vines has caused mildew and rot in the beans, but drastic measures are being taken at this time, as the beans are already starting to dry up.

The water level, which reached a stand of 12 feet when irrigation ceased, is now down to 20 feet, according to the record kept of a test well in Talbert.

ANAHEIM CITIZENS TO ATTEND SESSION

ANAHEIM, July 31.—Members of the road committee of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce are planning to attend a meeting of interested citizens of Orange county August 7 in the city hall at Orange at 7:30 p. m. Phil Stanton, state highway commissioner, and S. V. Cortelyou, district highway engineer, are to conduct the meeting, which is to be held to discuss the detailed routing of the San Bernardino-Newport Beach secondary highway.

The meeting will be of interest to residents of Anaheim from standpoint that a discussion will be held on the inclusion of the Olive-Anaheim roads in the state secondary highway system.

70,000 BOOKS TAKEN OUT OF BEACH LIBRARY

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 31.—Mrs. Bertha Reynolds, head of the library here, states that the local library has almost doubled its circulation this year over last year. This fiscal year ending with July, the people took 69,997 books from the library. During the previous year they borrowed 35,000 books.

Mrs. Reynolds stated that the library branch at 118 Main street would be discontinued tomorrow because of a reduced library fund for the coming year. This Main street reading room costs about $150 a month to operate and the library board decided the branch would be discontinued this year.

Badges Due Six Laguna Scouts

LAGUNA BEACH, July 31.—Six members of troop No. 16, Boy Scouts, will receive merit badges at the troop court of honor this evening at Alico beach. Certificates were given them Tuesday at the examinations in the Community church basement, when 27 merit badges were passed by the board of review. George William Walter was chairman of the board. Fred Warman assisted, taking the place of absent members, Earl S. Kittle and Roy Peacock.

Boys who passed the tests were Charles Walden, L. W. Means, Bill Shields, William Walter Jr., Merle Worthy and Junior Warman.

Willard H. Wright At Laguna Beach

LAGUNA BEACH, July 31.—Willard Huntington Wright, better known as S. S. Van Dine, writer of murder mysteries, has been spending several days in this city, accompanied by Mrs. Wright. He has been in California for about four months and, though behind in his schedule, admits that he much prefers staying in Laguna Beach to going to New York City.

Though reticent as to what he is doing at present in preparing murder novels, he admitted that he had discussed materials with friends in this city. The dapper novelist also admits a reluctance to leaving the coast at present.

CAR HITS STORE

TALBERT, July 31.—A terrific crash resulted when a car driven by the foreman of the Philipinos who reside on the Nimocks ranch ran into the front of the store of Mrs. Hattie Talbert, wrecking one door and a large window. The driver was attempting to park in front of the store when, instead of putting his foot on the brake he touched the accelerator instead, driving across the porch into the building.

Redlands Student Gives Address In H. B. On Sunday

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 31.—Russell Bales, Redlands university student and graduate of the local high school, who is studying to become a Methodist minister, will preach his first sermon in the Methodist church of this city Sunday night. The young student has been active in church and Sunday school work from early childhood and is prominent in the Epworth league of the city.

BREA

BREA, July 31.—Brea friends of William Collins, eldest son of J. R. Collins, of this city, will learn with pleasure of his rapid improvement following a long and serious illness which detained him from his work at the Brea-Orinda union high school last year. In Fullerton at the Reed rest sanitarium, William is following several outdoor pursuits, among which is gardening, and his improvement is so rapid and sure that he expects to enter school with the opening of the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Inna are leaving Saturday for a two weeks vacation at Lake Tahoe, making the trip by automobile. During Mrs. Inna's absence from the First National bank of this city her duties will be carried on by Mrs. Clifton Howell of Los Angeles. Mrs. Howell formerly was Miss Miriam Pendleton of this city and also a former employee of the bank.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. Judson Oatfield and Mr. and Mrs. Ed P. Eason, all former residents of Brea, drove over from Long Beach Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Delacora, of La Habra, visited here Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dustin on Walnut street. In company with Mrs. Dustin, Mrs. Delacora attended the meeting of Trinity Rebekah lodge that evening.

Miss Myrtle Jones, bookkeeper in the office of the Shaffer Tool works, with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McGregor, all of the Casa Brea Inn, returned Tuesday from a six weeks vacation in the Hawaiian Islands where Miss Jones was visiting with a sister who teaches in the public schools in Honolulu. Miss Jones will shortly return to her work with the Shaffer firm. During her absence Mrs. Lucille Elder has been assisting with the work.

Mrs. Fred Brambley is receiving an extended visit from two young sisters, Gladys and Miriam Witty, of Drain, Ore. They will remain until time for the opening of their school this fall.

Word from Mrs. Clara Oliver to friends in Brea tells of her arrival in Gnadenhuetten, Ohio, where she has gone to be with relatives indefinitely. Before leaving Brea, Mrs. Oliver was the guest of honor at a bridge party given by the Pioneer bridge club of La Habra with which group she had been associated for several years.

Mrs. Ezra Law and little granddaughter, May Montell, who is spending the summer here, have returned from a visit to South Pasadena and Ventura. In the first city they visited with Mrs. Law's son, Harry Law, and family.

OIL MAN'S DEATH HELD UNAVOIDABLE

FULLERTON, July 31.—Holding the death of Alfred H. Stagner, 48, Yorba Linda oil worker, accidental, a coroner's jury in the McCauley and Suters funeral parlors yesterday afternoon declared the accident unavoidable and attached no blame.

Stagner was instantly killed Wednesday morning when his car and one driven by G. Hart Chesley of Fullerton, collided at the intersection of Valencia avenue and Golden street, east of Placentia at 8:40 a. m. Stagner received a broken skull and compound fractures of the right shoulder and right arm. Chesley escaped injury.

Funeral services for Stagner were held at 3 p. m. today from the McCauley and Suters funeral parlors of Fullerton. The Rev. Joseph Grey, pastor of the Brea Nazarene church, officiated. Interment was to be in Loma Vista cemetery.

Card Party Held By Laguna O. E. S.

LAGUNA BEACH, July 31.—Lucille Bernard and Winifred Russell were hostesses at the Eastern Star card party given by chapter No. 621 in the Masonic hall Wednesday afternoon. It is the second given by the order and the third in which the chapter has participated, having given one jointly with F. and A. M. lodge No. 672.

Those who were guests, playing bridge, were Beverly Bishop, Caroline Tracy, Hazel Bishop, Hazel Downing, Mrs. Butterfield, Lenna Bishop, A. L. Crowe, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Emma Cranford, Miss DeLong, Florence Switzer, Mrs. Charles H. Jester, Jean Bell, Grace Wilson, Venia Shrewsbury, Margaret Merrill, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Santet, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. W. G. Schmelzel, Mrs. C. M. Shaver, Mrs. Crowe, Thurston, Mrs. Scott, Loreta Chilton, Olive Mason, Mrs. Bally, Mrs. Ingram, Marie Schleicher, Mrs. Kate Randall.

Those who played "500" were Hazel Gowa, A. J. Grant, Anna Watkins, Mrs. Abe Johnson, Mrs. Van Cleave, Mrs. Pickering, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Murray, Pearl Wooster, Mrs. Frank Case, Florence Rowley.

FISHING BOAT BURNS

SAN CLEMENTE, July 31.—The 42-foot H. P. C., owned by the Halfhill Packing company, Long Beach, caught fire yesterday off the San Clemente strand and burned to the water's edge. Joe Johns was repairing the engine when the craft caught fire. He took to his skiff and went to secure aid, but by the time he returned the fire was beyond control.

SERVICES FOR JAMES KYLE, 64, HELD SATURDAY

COSTA MESA, July 31.—Funeral services are to be held tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. at the Grooms funeral chapel for William James Kyle, 64, who passed away last evening. Services are to be conducted by the Rev. A. E. Hase, pastor of the Costa Mesa Community church, and interment is to be made in Central Memorial park.

A native of Wisconsin, Mr. Kyle had been a resident of California for the past 25 years and of Costa Mesa for the past eight years. He owned a considerable amount of property in this vicinity and was well known here. Mr. Kyle was a 32nd degree Mason and a Shriner.

Surviving the deceased are two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Dickey of Los Angeles and Mrs. M. Dempster of Logansville, Mich., and five brothers, John of Weiser, Ida, Matthew of San Simon, Ariz., George of Indio, La., Russell of Jacksonville, Fla., and W. S. Kyle of Costa Mesa.

Coronado Man Is Injured In Crash

SAN CLEMENTE, July 31.—A Stahl of the Coronado hotel was injured late Wednesday night in an auto wreck about six miles south of San Clemente when three high priced cars came together. Stahl was taken to the San Clemente Clinic and hospital and is under the care of Dr. Garret B. Grant today, suffering from cuts about the face, bruises and shock. No one else was injured in the wreck.

Flood Lights Planned For Night Bathers

SAN CLEMENTE, July 31.—San Clemente is to have night bathing under flood lights if Dr. J. B. Lape has his way. Dr. Lape has secured five large flood lights and is seeking permission from the city council to install them on the San Clemente municipal pier. He plans to have the lights in use until September 15 and make night bathing possible in San Clemente from June to September.

Mexican Held On Year Old Charge

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 31.—Emil Sanchez, 21-year-old Mexican, was arrested Wednesday afternoon by Constable Al Jimenez, following the theft of two automobile tires in Dana Point. Complaint was made to Judge Landell by two men that the Mexican had been seen taking the tires. Judge Landell notified the constable, who started at once to make the arrest, and met Sanchez en route to San Juan Capistrano. Search of his car failed to show the stolen tires.

He was taken before Judge Landell and identified as having been in the same court a year ago and later having failed to appear for trial. At that time he was charged with having no registration, no drivers' plates and no driver's license. He was given a five-day jail sentence by the judge and lodged in the Santa Ana jail.

Clarence Lobo, 19, native of San Juan Capistrano, was arrested Wednesday afternoon by Constable Jimenez on a vagrancy charge, and was bound over for trial on August 4.

MARKET OWNER AND S. R. BOWEN PLAN BUILDINGS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 31.—R. Y. Britton, proprietor of the Standard market, will erect a new business building here at the site of his store, corner Main and Walnut streets. Work will start September 1. The building will be of pressed brick and concrete with 50 feet frontage on Main street and 117 feet on Walnut. It will be one story with 116 foot ceiling.

There will be store rooms for the Standard grocery, the McIntosh meat market, the Loy fruit and vegetable stand, a lunch room and short order restaurant, an ice cream and soft drink store, and a cut rate drug store.

The Standard market here draws patronage from a wide area. Dr. Britton stated that the grocery department sales last Saturday showed over 2000 buyers in the one day.

S. R. Bowen, owner of the corner across the street from the Standard market, will within the next few months or toward the end of the present year, erect a business block. The Bowen building will be a home for a bank and also offices for one of the large corporations operating in this city. Mr. Bowen has not decided on plans for his building.

CROWD ATTENDS CARNIVAL

City Council Hears Of Hoover Dam Power Project

PASADENA MEN EXPLAIN HOW PLAN WORKS

An expenditure of some $30,000 would bring power to Santa Ana from Hoover Dam at Boulder Canyon—all the power Santa Ana can use.

This and other important bits of information were given members of the Santa Ana city council yesterday afternoon, when the council was addressed by City Attorney Harold P. Huls, of Pasadena, and B. F. De Lanty, general manager of municipal light and power at Pasadena.

The meeting, held in the council chambers, was the result of an invitation recently sent to the Pasadena officials, asking them to come to Santa Ana and explain a number of points regarding the project before the council decides whether this city should join a number of other Southern California cities which have signified their intention of obtaining power from the big dam.

No action was taken by the council, the meeting being merely for the purpose of learning the details of how power can be obtained and its approximate cost and trouble in procuring it.

Power Separate Question
Huls explained at the start that the obtaining of power from the dam had nothing whatsoever to do with the Metropolitan water project and should not be confused with it—that its working plan was entirely different and that the two projects were separate in every way.

The government is to build and operate Hoover dam and the cost of said construction is to be paid by the municipalities which obtain the power, payment to be made over a period of 50 years, Huls told the council.

There are 11 cities in Southern California outside of Los Angeles which have been allocated 6 per cent of all the power derived at the dam. Whether these cities decide to take power intended for them is now being threshed out over council tables in virtually all of the cities, with only a few of them having decided to enter the plan. Santa Ana is one of the cities which has not made up its mind.

The 11 cities are Pasadena, Santa Ana, San Bernardino, Colton, Mendota, Burbank, Anaheim, Fullerton, Beverly Hills, Newport Beach and Riverside. Anaheim, Fullerton, Newport Beach and Riverside have definitely decided that they will not try power from Hoover dam, but it will not affect any of the cities which decide to enter into the plan. It was pointed out, for example, that the city of Los Angeles has contracted with the government that, of the six per cent allocated to the outside cities, it will take all the power that the outside cities do not take.

Santa Ana's Share
Santa Ana's allocation of the 6 per cent is 6.65 per cent, Huls stated.

Los Angeles is allocated 13 per cent of the power generated at the dam, and public utilities of Southern California will receive 9 per cent of the power.

It was first announced, according to De Lanty, that cities in the district would have to make up their minds before August 1, but a continuance has been granted until November 15. City councils in the district can contract with the government for power at any time, but these contracts must be ratified by city elections before the November date set, it was explained.

San Bernardino is holding its city election on August 4.

Buy from Government
Should Santa Ana decide to purchase its power from Hoover Dam, it will not be buying the power from Los Angeles as many believe, it was pointed out, but will be dealing directly with the government. Los Angeles will bring the power from the dam directly to Los Angeles, and the smaller cities, possibly through sub-stations, will obtain their power from the Los Angeles receiving, but Los Angeles will merely be the agent from which the smaller cities obtain the power, and will not be the distributor or merchant.

In other words, Santa Ana will not be manufacturing its own power by buying an interest in the dam, or in any Los Angeles project, but will merely be buying service from the government, to be paid for over a 50 year period, it was explained.

No plan has been advanced yet which would indicate just how the power would be brought from Los Angeles to Santa Ana, but this is believed to be a detail which can be arranged with little trouble, once the power is in Los Angeles. But because of it, there is no way to accurately tell just what the cost in its entirety would be. Rough estimates place Santa Ana's cost at approximately $30,000.

City Attorney Huls stated that it would be impossible to construct the dam and the power lines so that the project would yield power for the smaller cities before 1937.

COUNTY GROVES ARE PRODUCING MOST AVOCADOS

The two largest avocado producing groves in Southern California, at least over a three-month period, are located in this district. It is revealed today by the Calavo Growers of California, whose records show that the San Joaquin Fruit and Investment company orchards, near Tustin, in April, May and June produced the record of 5441 fine boxes, more than the total volume in a month in the entire industry several years ago.

Totalling 1719 boxes, the Irvine ranch groves, also near Tustin, are second in the three month period over which the second partial operating refund of the season is now being made at the rate of 75 cents a box. The refunds are

TOUR ARRANGED FOR STUDY OF RECLAMATION

Importance of sewage reclamation as a partial solution to Southern California's water problem has prompted organization of a field day tour, sponsored by the agricultural extension service for the purpose of giving farmers and other interested persons of Orange county and other areas an opportunity to inspect the various reclamation plants in Los Angeles county.

According to Harold E. Wahlberg, Orange county farm advisor, August 6, the date which has been set for the tour should be of great importance to those persons interested in water conservation. It is claimed that 10,000 acre feet of water are being lost annually through sewage passing into the ocean from Los Angeles county while Orange county loses approximately 6000 acre feet in the same manner. It is estimated that by means of sewage reclamation a great deal of the water now going to waste can be saved and devoted to economic purposes.

The tour will start from Los Angeles next Thursday when persons planning to make the trip will meet at the experimental reclamation plant of the City of Los Angeles at Griffith Park. They are to meet there at 9:30 a. m. and Engineer R. F. Goudy will be present to explain the process being used at this plant. At 11 a. m. the tour is scheduled to arrive at the Tri-City plant at Alhambra. At this plant approximately eight and one-half million gallons of sewage are going through the process of reclamation with the manufacture of fertilizer as a by-product. City Engineer Hooper, of Pasadena, will explain the work at this plant.

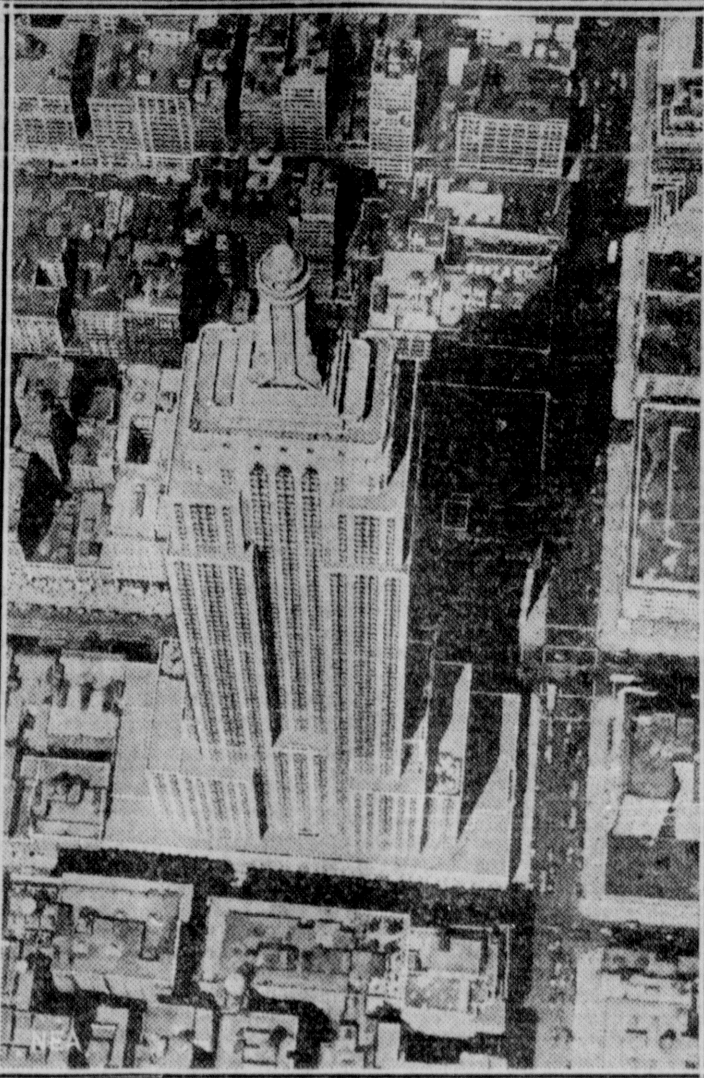

At 2 p. m. the tour will stop at the Pomona sewage outflow plant and City Engineer F. C. Froehde will explain the process being used at this place. Whittier sewage farm is scheduled as the last stop. Engineer Bowen of Whittier will be in charge of explanations regarding operation of this plant.

entirely in addition to the regular monthly pool payments, the majority of the largest coming to Orange county. More than $52,000 has been distributed to growers already this year in these two "operating dividends," it is reported.

George E. Marcy, J. K. Herman and Dr. John Wehrly are among those receiving the substantial refunds from the growers' association in this locality. The Banchury ranch at Fullerton is shown to be the seventh largest producer in the state, while the Murphy Oil company of East Whittier is third. C. C. Chapman of Fullerton, D. E. Huff, Orange; E. E. Knight, Yorba Linda; Willis Maple, Fullerton; William McPherson, Orange; A. C. Pickering of Yorba Linda; and S. J. Tuffree of Placentia are others who are receiving large refunds in this vicinity.

UP IN THE AIR

Towering from its neighborhood of large office buildings in mid-town Manhattan, the Empire State building, world's tallest structure, here is shown in a striking plane's-eye view that reveals every detail of its architectural lines. Note how the 86-story, 1248-foot building, surmounted by a tower intended for a dirigible mooring mast, casts a shadow two blocks in length across Fifth avenue.

CRAIG SAYS REFERENDUM PROPOSED BY NORTH WILL NOT AFFECT CONGRESSMEN

Efforts of politicians in the north to invoke a referendum against the reapportionment measures passed by the last legislature will be fruitless, in the opinion of Assemblyman Ted Craig, of Brea, who was chairman of the reapportionment committee of the assembly during the last session of the legislature.

In the first place Craig has his doubts as to whether enough names can be obtained by the circulators of the petitions, and even should there be enough it is very doubtful if enough would be legal to make the petitions valid. "And another thing," said Craig, "it will have no effect on the congressional districts. It would be impossible to invoke a referendum against the congressional reapportionment because that phase of it doesn't come under the state laws."

According to Craig the south has nothing to gain by a referendum. He declares that while Los Angeles county lost in the number of representatives in the assembly it benefited by an increase in the senate. Orange county is entirely satisfied with the reapportionment measures, in the opinion of Craig, and would put up a stiff battle against any change through a referendum. "Should a vote be held on the question," said Craig, "I am confident that Orange county would vote almost solidly against it."

S. A. CLUB TO VISIT LIONS AT WHITTIER

Members of the Santa Ana Lions club will go to Whittier in a body and hold their meeting next Thursday in conjunction with the Whittier Lions club. It was decided at the regular club meeting held at Ketter's yesterday. Transportation for all club members will be provided in motor busses arranged for by Wilbur Shock, Santa Ana Union Pacific agent, and a member of next week's program committee, which also includes Clarence Tedford, chairman, and Ralph Raft.

The start will be made from the corner of Broadway and Church streets at 11:30 next Thursday morning. This visit is in the nature of a return courtesy for the services of the Whittier Lions club chorus which recently journeyed here on service club night and entertained at Birch park in connection with the week-long municipal band program.

Attorney J. B. Tucker acted as the speaker yesterday and conducted a businessman's law class, explaining interesting points of law and answering questions put to him by members of the club, which proved an instructive and entertaining feature. Frank West, Frank Drumm and Jack Campbell composed the program committee for the day.

District Governor Elliott Rowland reported briefly on his trip to the International Lions club convention held in Toronto and a visit to the international offices in Chicago. For four years, he said, the Lions have formed an average of one new club each day, and during the past year 333 new Lions clubs were organized. That the Lions are a service organization is proven by the fact, he said, that the international office has reports on 16,600 worthwhile club activities for the past year which were carried on in various parts of the country, in addition to many others which were not reported.

State Tide Land Case Is Reopened In Superior Court

Bolsa Land company's action to determine the high tide line in reference to Tideland Permit No. 134, for oil drilling, near Huntington Beach, in front of the Bolsa Chica Gun club, was given a court airing yesterday when the land company had their case against the Vaqueros-Major Oil company reopened for oral argument before Superior Judge H. G. Ames.

The suit to establish the high tide line was tried last March, and submitted on briefs. The oral argument requested yesterday by the plaintiff was intended to supplement the briefs already submitted.

Attorney General U. S. Webb has become interested in the case and his office was represented at yesterday's hearing by Lewis G. Campbell. Because of the importance of this case to all the people of California, Surveyor General W. S. Kingsbury has attended all hearings and was in court yesterday. The action includes location of state tide land boundaries.

The law firm of Gibson, Dunn and Crutcher is representing the plaintiff company in the action and Robert Pease appeared for the law firm of Pease, Dolly and Elson for the Vaqueros-Major Oil company.

LAGUNA BEACH

LAGUNA BEACH, July 31.—Junior members of the Music Lovers' club will offer the program to be given Thursday evening August 6, at the Josephine Hills studio on Glenneyre street. Hostesses for the occasion are Mrs. Sumner Crosby and Mrs. Leslie E. Kimmel.

Madame Ali-Kuli Khan will be speaker at the first general meeting of the Women's University club of Laguna Beach to be held Tuesday evening, August 4, in the Community playhouse. All university women are invited.

various parts of the country, in addition to many others which were not reported.

MARRIAGES IN ORANGE COUNTY SHOW INCREASE

Even if two can't live as cheaply as one in other counties in California, it seems they still think they can in Orange county, according to the number of marriages during the first six months of the year.

During that period there were 1,307 nuptial vows exchanged in Orange county, as compared to 1652 for the corresponding period of 1930, or an increase of 130.

Throughout the state, however, there was a decrease in the number of weddings, according to figures announced by Dr. Giles S. Porter, state director of public health. Only 23,445 couples signed their "I do's" for the six months ending June 30, this year, while in the same period last year, there were 24,000 marriages.

Possibly the orange blossoms in Orange county had something to do with it, for it now ranks third highest in the state, passing Alameda county, which formerly held the position.

Alpine and Sierra counties must be positively unromantic. Alpine continued a record with no marriages as yet this year. The same is true of Sierra, which only had one during the first six months of 1930.

And then there's Mono county, with a 500 per cent increase. One marriage in 1930, five already this year.

And to further substantiate a contention that things could be worse, statistics show that June hasn't lost its appeal as the month of brides.

In June, 1930, there were 5,559 marriages, while this figure rose to 5,915 last June — far higher than any other month of the year for the state.

Los Angeles county led the state with 5,655 marriages, and San Francisco was second with 2,765.

Forest Home Charms Prove Attractive To Visitors

There have been many activities among Santa Anas spending the hot weather in Forest Home, with visitors coming and going, indulging in hikes to various points of interest and welcoming newcomers to this popular resort.

Daily showers have made the mountains and canyons refreshingly cool and delightful, according to Mrs. William G. Knox, who with his daughter, Miss Marjorie Knox, has been spending the entire summer in their pleasant cabin, where Mr. Knox joins them for week-end visits.

"Everyone enjoys these summer rains in the mountains," declared Mrs. Knox. "They revive greenery, cool the air and refresh things generally."

Torrey's camp, a feature of the lovely mountain vale where Forest Home is located, has had its share of Santa Ana visitors. Including Fred H. Rice and his son, Russell Rice, and their families, Mrs. E. M. Bradley and son of this city were among the week-end guests in the camp, while Earl Mathis and family of Placentia and Perry Mathis and family of Anaheim are spending the entire month there.

Mrs. Frederick Ely and daughter, who are spending the summer in Forest Home, were joined over the past week-end by Mr. Ely, Mrs. F. C. Rowland and her daughter, Miss Barbara Rowland, together with Mrs. C. F. Crose, are at the Rowland cabin, where they had as guests for several days Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson. Mrs. Wilson was Miss Ninnette Rowland.

The famous Scott cottage, "Eagle's Nest," situated like an aerial far above the pines of Forest Home, has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Scott. During their stay Mr. Scott, athletic director at Julia Lathrop Junior High school, took many interesting hikes including those to Dollar lake and to Grayback.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carden and sons are other Santa Anas enjoying mountain life and are in the Carden cabin. Mrs. H. R. Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Hill, are pleasantly located in the Allen cottage for a two weeks' stay.

Dr. John McAuley spent the past week-end with his family in their cabin, and was accompanied by Miss Mabelle Johnston, who remained for a week's visit as guest of Miss Virginia McAuley.

Co-hostesses Honor Bride-elect With Pretty Party

The Roy Rannels home on Bryn-a-roo street, Tustin, was the scene of a pretty affair Wednesday night when Miss Eva Rannels and Miss Marie Labrucherie entertained a group of friends as a compliment to Miss Helen Fickas of Newport Beach, who was married to Sheldon Smith, also of Newport Beach, will be an event of October.

The happy occasion was a surprise to the honoree, who thought she was attending a party given in honor of Miss Ruth Weiss and Miss Cary Gray, both of Tustin, who expect to enter the Orange County Hospital Nurses' Training school at an early date. Many lovely gifts of a miscellaneous nature were presented to Miss Fickas by her friends for use in her future home. Cards were played for the remainder of the evening and Miss Fickas scored, receiving first prize.

At a late hour the co-hostesses served sandwiches, ice cream, angel food and chocolate cake and ice punch at the card tables. Quantities of orchid and pink flowers were used in decorations throughout the home.

Those sharing the evening with the Misses Rannels and Labrucherie and their honor guest, Miss Fickas, were Miss Hester Sanborn of Newport Beach; the Misses Beth Collar, Ruth Weiss, Cary Gray, Rachel Jones, Frances Carl, Dorothy Penman, Norma Tantiingler, Pauline Parks, Bonnie Kiser, Virginia Cogan, and Josephine Brader, all of Tustin.

Head of Girls' School In Italy to Speak Before B. P. W.

Business and Professional Women are anticipating the most interesting program of the summer for next Monday noon in the Ketter gold room, for members of the August program committee have persuaded Miss Elizabeth Yoder, director of the Elizabeth Yoder school for American Girls in Florence, Italy, and a summer visitor in Santa Ana, to talk on her experiences abroad and in conducting this important school.

The school was founded to offer American girls the opportunity to study and travel abroad under the most favorable conditions, and is located at the Villa Ramberg, the ancestral home of the Marchese de la Stufa, dating from the 14th century.

Miss Yoder was dean of the school of speech at University of Southern California for 21 years, during which time she made frequent trips abroad, always spending her sabbatical years in study and travels in Europe. Associated with her on the staff are several Italian women of the highest culture and education and Miss Lois Craig, A.B., a graduate of University of Southern California, with the class of 1920.

Beulah Wright Comstock of Hollywood, former dean of the school of speech at U. S. C., is American representative of the school.

District Auxiliary Meeting Is Announced

Mrs. Dean Collier, president of the American Legion auxiliary, today called attention of auxiliary members to the Twenty-first district's "pre-convention" meeting to be held in Huntington Beach next Thursday, August 6. It is important that all convention delegates and alternates attend this meeting, according to Mrs. Collier, as the business session will be devoted to plans for convention activities, especially in regard to the endorsing of various candidates for state officers. The convention will be held in September in Long Beach. Those planning to attend next Thursday's meeting of the district, should make reservations for the luncheon to be served at 12:30 by the Huntington Beach auxiliary. These reservations must be made by Monday morning through Mrs. Marian Matthews, 541 W.

Mesa Bride and Groom Have Returned From Honeymoon

Returning from their Southern honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Page, well-known young people of Costa Mesa, are receiving their friends in a pretty place on Eldon avenue in the Mesa, where a wealth of wedding gifts attest the popularity of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Page was Miss Harriett Gullock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gullock of Costa Mesa. Mr. Page is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Page, also Mesa residents. The wedding of the young people was an event of Saturday, July 11, in the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McSpadden of Lynwood.

It was beneath a snowy wedding veil, placed amidst lavish decorations of gladioluses and maidenhair fern, that the young people took their wedding vows before the Rev. Mr. McCullough, pastor of the Lynwood Baptist church.

For the occasion, Miss Gullock chose a soft apricot chiffon gown with white accessories. She wore a wreath of orange blossoms and carried an arm cluster of roses.

Her sister, Mrs. McSpadden, was her honor matron while Mr. McSpadden attended Mr. Page as best man.

Immediately following the service a delicious chicken supper was served to the bride and groom and to Mr. and Mrs. Gullock, Mr. and Mrs. Page, Ben Page, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Renwick, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Page, Miss Elaine Gullock, Jacketta Gullock, Costa Mesa; Mrs. James Heaton of Huntington Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dale of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Sutton, Glendale; and Mr. and Mrs. McSpadden. The table, like the home, was prettily decorated with bouquets of gladioluses and maidenhair fern.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Page left immediately on their honeymoon from which they so recently returned to establish their home on the Mesa.

Church Departments Enjoy Swimming At Beach

Swimming in the glorious moonlight bathed waters and then gathering around a huge bonfire, for roasted wieners and buns was the way in which members of the Young People's and High School departments of the First Methodist Episcopal church "cooled off" Tuesday evening at Corona del Mar.

The most enjoyable part of the evening came when pairing off in couples, each couple was given clues to hunt for watermelons as their dessert, afterwards gathered around the campfire, favorite songs were sung and stories told.

Delmer Brown was in charge of the affair, which was planned Sunday evening when the Epworth league and high school departments met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ulrich on Lemon Heights. At this time Delmer Brown led general discussions on various topics and then a social hour followed during which refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Florence Ulrich.

Oakland Parents Welcome Baby Daughter

The birth of a little daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Brett of Oakland, was cause for rejoicing to Brett's mother and aunt, Mrs. Marian E. Brett and Dr. Evalene Peo, 723 South Lyon street.

The little girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Brett on Tuesday, July 7, and has been named Janet, the name selected by Master Jimmie Brett, seven-year-old son of the home, who is delighted with his baby sister, and highly gratified at being permitted to choose her name. Ralph F. Brett is a former Santa Ana young man, and his wife, a charming Oakland girl, has made an equal number of friends here upon occasions of their visits to Mrs. Brett and Dr. Peo.

Music Recital

In accordance with a custom of some three years' standing, Lola B. Wilkinson, of the Institute of Musical Education, is presenting a talented young pianist, Olive Eleanor Schwelzler, in a recital open to the public, the event to take place tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the studio at Room 12, Greenleaf building.

Olive Eleanor is the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Schwelzler, 1024 Kilson drive, and will present a program of unusual strength and difficulty for so youthful a pianist. There will be Beethoven and Chopin numbers, Lieberich's "The Musical Box" and Ravina's "Etude de Style." With Mrs. Wilkinson she also will play such duet numbers as selections from Bizet's "Carmen," and "Spanish Dance" by Pitzner, and will be at the piano as accompanist for Margaret Davies, assisting on the program. Margaret's violin numbers will be "Humoresque" by Dvorak and "Scherzo" by Sereenade.

Jaycee Spinsters Have Shower for Miss Proctor

For the double purpose of showering Miss Louise Proctor with linens and holding a reunion for all the members of the club, the Spinsterhood of Spinsters of Santa Ana junior college met last night in the home of Miss Betty Maloney, 330 South Broadway. Miss Proctor, whose marriage to Ethan Louchbach will occur tomorrow is the first Spinster to wed.

When scores were added at the conclusion of the bridge games, Miss Hazel Guilbert received a set of bath towels for scoring high and Miss Betty Maloney received a pewter necklace for second high score. Refreshments were served on the card tables decorated in green and white, the club colors, and watermelon stars were served with mint punch and avocado cheese sandwiches. After this course, several of the Spinsters entered the room carrying a large basket heaped with packages which proved to be a number of dainty linens of various kinds for the bride-to-be.

Spinsters present besides the honoree, Miss Proctor, were the Misses Betty Maloney, Nelle Grafton, Betty Wiswall, Margery Adams, Iona De Reuter, Allen Adams, Frances Bowman, Ada Marie Hendricksen, Margaret Wilson, Marjorie Walton, Bernice Summers, Hazel Guilbert, Phyllis O'Connor, Wilma Patterson, Marjorie Arundell and Grace Skinner.

During the evening plans were made for an informal sport dance to be held at Lake Norco on August 15, and courtesy to the members who are leaving for the different colleges and universities.

The MIXING BOWL by ANN MEREDITH

Frozen Red Raspberries

The magic lamp is rubbed for modern housewives every day of their lives. I can remember in the early days of my housekeeping when only hot-house lemons at 60 cents a pound was available, then came the crisp head lettuce we now use with such lavish hand. Packing plants, too, have made their stride forward. Just a few winters ago we began to get frozen strawberries—no need to tell you how many nice things can be done with them—this year a friend writes me from Oregon that the packing plants are putting up tons 'n' tons of frozen red raspberries for winter use.

Remember to ask for them along about December. Just think how delicious a raspberry cream cake could be or a fresh raspberry tart. You know how to make these parts? Make a rich pastry shell (baked), fill it two-thirds full with the fresh berries, use a cupful more to make a fruit sauce. Just add a cup of water and two-thirds cup of sugar to the berries, cook, strain and thicken with cornstarch, cooking the sauce until it is ruby-clear and not too thick. Pour the sauce over the berries, chill well and serve with whipped cream.

Just put "frozen red raspberries" down in your cook book memo and ask your grocer for them when cold weather comes along.

STUDENTS PLAN FIELD WORK

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—(UP)—A party of Harvard geological students, under the direction of Professor Kirk Bryan, assembled here June 29 to begin a tour of exploration of the mountains and canyons of the southwest. The party will go to the Nacimiento mountains, where field mapping will be carried on for about a month. Then the Jemez range will be visited for a study of volcanic phenomena and to visit the prehistoric remains at Puye.

"SECRET CALL" STARTS TODAY AT WEST COAST

Richard Arlen and Peggy Shannon (latest Hollywood "find") are co-featured in "The Secret Call," a taut gripping romantic drama of modern political intrigue in a big city, which will be the main feature on the bill at the Fox West Coast theater starting today.

The story which was written by William B. DeMille, famous figure in moviedom for many years, deals with the lives of a boy and girl who are inextricably bound in the activities of a big political "party machine."

Miss Shannon is seen as the daughter of a politician, a one-time henchman of the "big boss" who is made the "goat" in a city-wide investigation of the practices of his party. He alone bears the disgrace which is due the entire "machine."

The girl swears vengeance on "the boss" after her father dies, broken-hearted by the disgrace. To earn a livelihood she becomes a telephone operator in a big hotel. When her enemy, "the boss," makes this hotel his headquarters she learns enough facts about his shady operations in politics to send him to jail.

But she is in love with Arlen, son of "the boss"—and thus is caught between a burning desire for vengeance, and an impulse to protect her lover.

The plot carries on through a series of high-voltage situations, to the staccato accompaniment of fast dialog.

"RANGO" PLAYING AT WALKER STATE

Human drama as well as natural drama are interwoven in "Rango," the adventure-story epic now at Walker's State theater.

"Rango" is concerned with the lives, and the difficulties in preserving them, of four individuals—two humans and two apes.

An old Malay tiger hunter and his son are the humans. They live in a bamboo shack on top of poles out of tiger-reach in the heart of the Sumatra jungle.

The apes are "Tua," the father; and "Rango," the little two-year old son.

The heavy villains of this exciting story are the tigers who prey upon man and beast alike and who fear nothing.

EAGLES FOR U. S. EMBASSY

PARIS.—(UP)—True American eagles, not lions as has been rumored, will appear on the portals of the new American embassy in the Place de la Concorde. Early pictures of the new structure showed two lions reclining on either side of the entrance and alarmed patriotic residents. Work has been started, but it is estimated that it will take two or more months to demolish the Grimoire de la Reyniere mansion and clear the ground on which the new embassy is to be built. There will be an official ceremony when the cornerstone is laid.

NEWS AND NOTES MICKEY MOUSE CLUB for BOYS AND GIRLS

"It's a Great Life," the all-comedy picture, featuring the Duncan sisters, is the film attraction for the Santa Ana Mickey Mouse club for tomorrow, according to an announcement made today.

The Mickey Mouse club meets at the Fox West Coast theater at 1

p. m. on Saturday, and aside from the film treat which will be given the members, every child will receive an Eskimo pie.

Unusual stage attraction, including games and local talent entertainment also are scheduled for the entertainment of the children.

"Transatlantic" Here During 'Month of Stars'

"Trans-Atlantic," latest Fox picture, starring Edmund Lowe, is one of the big pictures to come to Santa Ana during the "Month of Stars"—August.

Critics who have viewed the film before release, declare that it is one of the most astounding pictures made since sound has been used. Packed with human interest, built on a swift, breath-taking plot and with a cast without a flaw, predictions are made that "Trans-Atlantic" will be probably the outstanding picture of the year.

OCEANVIEW

OCEANVIEW, July 31.—Miss Phyllis Jones of Huntington Beach has been employed by the directors of the Oceanview school as instrumental music instructor and orchestra director for the coming school term. Individual lessons will be given those wishing to take them. Miss Jones will have one day each week in the school.

The teacher for the first grade has been chosen, she being Mrs. Lucille Taylor Hansen of Los Angeles.

MURDER FILM AT BROADWAY REAL THRILLER

Persons who enjoy going to a movie, sitting down and calmly enjoying themselves are asked to stay away from the Fox Broadway theater today, because the current picture is not the type that allows patrons of the theater to be calm. It is "Murder By The Clock," a Paramount murder mystery thriller and there is not a calm minute in it.

Based on the novel by Rufus

King, of the same title, it is slightly different as to plot because the real murderer is changed in the screen version, so that the audience, or that part of it which has read the book, will still be surprised at the strange ending of the film.

The picture is one anti-climax after another and one thrill from start to finish. A man is killed at 11 p. m. His body is brought back to life again, just as he was about to say the name of his murderer.

The audience will never guess the identity of the slayer until the picture's climax reveals it making "Murder By The Clock" one of the most interesting murder thrillers seen in Santa Ana in a long time.

PANTRY SHELF

STANTON

STANTON, July 31.—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Maurer entertained her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Balliquette, of Berkeley, who are visiting relatives in Southern California at a 6 o'clock dinner one evening recently. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fulscher and Mrs. C. Prout and son, of Glendale, were other guests. Several social affairs have been given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Balliquette. Mr. and Mrs. Maurer attended a card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Evans in Long Beach Friday evening. Five hundred was played with Mr. and Mrs. Marvi Hughes winning first prize of an electric lamp. Mrs. Fulscher won second prize and Mrs. Powell, of Long Beach, and Mrs. Maurer, consolation. Another social event attended by Mr. and Mrs. Maurer was the celebration of the birthdays of Mrs. J. H. Evans, of Long Beach; Mrs. H. Steers, of Walnut Park, and Clyde Prout, of Glendale, a picnic luncheon held at Irvine Park Sunday.

Mrs. N. M. Gribble, of El Modena, is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Brandon. Mrs. Gribble is 83 years old. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Gillison and son, James, attended a picnic at Huntington Beach Sunday of old-time associates. Mr. Gillison formerly was a member of the Huntington Beach Christian church. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rutledge attended a banquet of the Orange Empire grocers at Riverside one evening recently.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Clark and two sons, Richard and David, spent one day recently at Laguna Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Bushnell, of Long Beach, spent the week end with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rowe. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gage, of Balboa, spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Gillison. Mr. Gillison had the misfortune to bruise a finger very badly while working at San Bernardino.

Mrs. L. Adams visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Spitzer, of Costa Mesa, over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson and daughter, Bettie Lou, are expected home soon. They made a trip to Hutchinson, Kans., to look after property and visit relatives. Owing to the heat and Mr. Thompson's health they are hurrying home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Straw and child, of Los Angeles, visited his mother, Mrs. Nellie Straw, one evening recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Erdman have returned from their northern trip. They stopped at Lenze, where they were joined by her mother, Mrs. Harrison, who returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellenball and son, Teddy Ellenball, of Santa Ana, visited Mrs. E. Hartman Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry Morgan scalded both arms severely while carrying boiling water. The vessel containing it broke, spilling the water over her arms.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jungkiet and daughter, Barbara Jean, and Model Kenney, of Fullerton, and A. C. Pebley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Pebley.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Richards and daughter, Jacqueline Lou, of Compton, and Mrs. Bjerstrom, of Los Alamitos, were recent callers of Mr. and Mrs. K. Rutledge. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lindley and Mrs. E. Guest had a 6 o'clock picnic dinner in Irvine park recently in celebration of the birthday of Ruth Ann, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lindley.

Mrs. E. F. McKibbin returned home from her trip to Chicago on Monday. Just before leaving Chicago she contracted a severe cold which grew worse on the trip until it was necessary to telegraph a doctor to meet the train at Ogden, Utah. After treatment Mrs. McKibbin was able to come on home.

Paul Benson and mother, Mrs. Nellie Benson, attended the funeral Monday in Los Angeles of L. Miser, father of J. H. Miser, of Cypress. Mr. Miser was a former resident of Waterloo, Ind., but had made Los Angeles his home for many years. He leaves a wife and a son, Jay Miser, and wife and seven grandchildren in Cypress.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rowe have returned home from their trip. They went to Morro Bay and enjoyed a cool outing. Mr. and Mrs. R. Holman and daughter, Joyce, of San Bernardino, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miles.

Roy Sutton, of the Soldiers' home at Sawtelle, had a 24-hour leave which he spent with his aunt, Mrs. J. H. Rutledge.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. King Rutledge and daughter, Katherine, Tuesday were Wayne Farmer and Rhea Hall and others from Redondo Beach; Loraine Grow, of Orana, and Ruth Gilson, of Clearwater. Each spent a day with Miss Katherine. On Monday evening Ethel and Marie Wilhoit, of Anaheim, were visitors in the Rutledge home.

GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE, July 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dungan and daughter, Muriel, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crafts at San Juan Capistrano. The afternoon they enjoyed swimming at Dana Point Strand.

Mrs. J. M. Woodworth is spending two weeks with her daughter, Miss Mabel Woodworth, in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tobias of Alhambra visited Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tobias Sunday. They all spent the afternoon at Huntington Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. German, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine German and family, Miss Margaret Arrowsmith and Mr. and Mrs. W. Irvine of Detroit, Mich., spent Sunday afternoon at Huntington Beach.

Mrs. Frank McConnell spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. E. M. Vance, at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Woodworth were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Schwab at Long Beach Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schwieger attended the funeral of Mrs. J. M. Herring.

A daughter, Virginia Mae, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Solter at the Garden Grove hospital July 25. Mrs. Walter Dungan entertained with a party Saturday afternoon in observance of the fourth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Muriel. After a social afternoon the honoree was presented with many lovely gifts.

At the refreshment hour the pink and white color scheme was carried out in the table decorations. A large birthday cake decorated with four candles graced the table. Individual cakes, with one candle, were at each place and enjoyed with ice cream and punch.

Those present were Mrs. Anna B. Brown of Tustin, Mrs. Charles Crafts and two children, Richard and Ruth Maxine, of San Juan Capistrano; Mrs. E. F. Marks and two daughters, Elaine and Thelma, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Fred Hein and son, Ronald; Mrs. W. W. Dungan and daughter, Juanita, and Mrs. Walter Dungan and daughter, Muriel.

SAVE GARDENS FROM DEER ASHLAND, Ore.—(UP)—East-erners who have an idea that the west is still overrun by wild animals and Indians, may have their anxiety when they read that a petition signed by 43 residents who desire that a seven-foot fence be constructed about the town to keep deer out of gardens. The deer are multiplying in the protected city watershed, according to H. Mannin, who contended the fence was necessary to save crops. Some action may be taken by the state game commission.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAI COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

All through the night the Tinymites slept. The Travel Man sat up and kept close watch over them. Thought he, I'll do my snoozing in the morn. When first the Tinymites arise I'll flop right down and close my eyes. To rest out in the open air makes you glad you were born.

The ukelele man arose and said, "I'm tired out, goodness knows, so I must be along my way. Say goodbye to the boys. I hope to play for them again, if you're around here now and then." And then he went away and didn't make one bit of noise.

Twice five o'clock when Scouty woke and he was just about to poke the other Tinymites when the Travel Man said, "Don't do that! Just let them sleep till they awake and now a good nap I will take. I can't go too long without sleep 'cause I am old and fat." "Ha, ha!" laughed Scouty. That's not true and, really, I'm not fooling you. You're just as old, sir, as you feel. But go ahead and sleep. At seven, I've a happy hunch, 'twill be time to wake up the bunch, but you can sleep till nine or 10 and I will keep close watch."

"Twice just high noon when everyone was up and having lots of fun. A flock of birds flew over head and Scouty cried, "Oh, my! Most anything I'd gladly give, if I could find out where they live. I've never seen so many birds together flying by."

"That's easy," said the Travel Man. "Just follow me. I'm sure we can locate the spot where all the birds are thick as they can be. They live together on the sand." Wee Coppy said, "This will be grand." And soon they found the bird place and it was a sight to see.

Missing Letter Links

RULES:

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't—TEE-TIP-PIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.
2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.
3. The order of the letters cannot be changed.

GOOD to CROP—You'll certainly agree that we put out a GOOD CROP of letter links puzzles after you shoot this rather simple par three.

WELL, GOOD NIGHT, OLD TIMER. DON'T WORRY ABOUT SLEEPING IN JUNIOR'S ROOM—HE NEVER WAKES UP TILL FIVE O'CLOCK.

OH, NOT UNTIL FIVE, EH? 'ATS FINE.

KONKEEEEEEE EEEEEEE BONG!!

HEY, STUPID! IT AIN'T EVEN MIDNIGHT YET.

WOW! BAW!

IT'S NO USE, GOZZY. EVERY TIME I GO TO SLEEP, HE STARTS TO YELL.

YOU SCARE HIM, HE THINKS THERE'S A DONKEY IN THE HOUSE.

WHAT SHALL WE DO? WHEN WASH SLEEPS, HE SNORES. AND WHEN HE SNORES, HE WAKES JUNIOR—AND THEN NOBODY CAN SLEEP. OH, DEAR! I'M AFRAID POOR WASH'LL HAVE TO SLEEP IN THE BATH TUB AFTER ALL.

FULLERTON

FULLERTON, July 31.—Miss Meta C. Daniel, daughter of William H. Daniel, 241 East Wilshire avenue, is spending her vacation from the Santa Ana high school faculty traveling with the High Sierras club, an organized traveling club in the Sierras region.

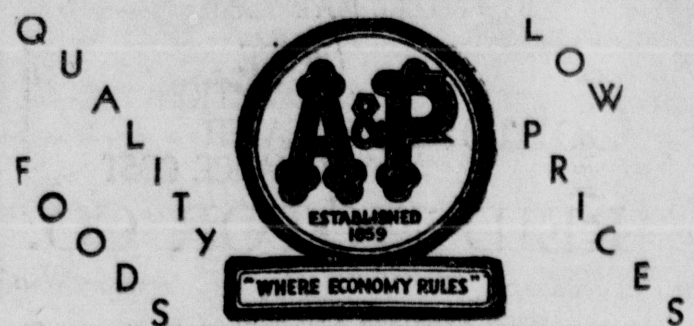

Mrs. Lill Scott and daughter Pearl, 149 North Princeton avenue, left yesterday for a two-week vacation trip to Long Beach and Balboa.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Clever of Euclid avenue, left yesterday on a two-month trip up the coast and into Canada. On their return they will go through Yellowstone National park and other points of interest in Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lovering of Three Rivers, Calif., will join the Clevers on the tour. Mr. Lovering is a brother of Mrs. Clever.

Miss Alice Clark, principal of the Chapman avenue grammar school, who left shortly after the close of school this summer on a trip through the orient, arrived in Japan, according to word received by relatives this week. Miss Clark planned to leave Japan and go to China for several weeks stay. The ocean voyage was reported as pleasant.

Coterie club members, who meet once each month to sew, lunch and chat, were entertained Friday at the home of Miss Sophia Burdett on East Orangeflower avenue.
